

Announcing Gonzaga University's Franz and Ann Schneider Essay Contest

The English Department is pleased to announce the Franz and Ann Schneider Essay Contest for the best student essays from this academic year's Composition and Introduction to Literature courses. Any student enrolled in English 101, 200, 102, 105, or 106 during summer term 2009, fall semester 2009, or spring semester 2010 is eligible to enter. (Note: essays from spring semester 2009 that were due in class after the March 30, 2009 cut-off for last year's contest may be submitted this year.) No more than two essays may be submitted by any student. All submissions will be evaluated by a committee from the English Department. Prizes, including cash ($100 for first place, $50 for second place, and $25 for third place), will be awarded to the authors of the best essays from English 101/200 and English 102/105/106.

To be eligible for this contest, each essay must be submitted with a completed copy of this form attached to it. Copies are available in the English Department (Robinson House 216) from Mrs. Linda McDonald, Senior Faculty Assistant.

The early submission date for essays written in the summer and fall terms is December 4, 2009. All submissions are due no later than Tuesday, March 30, 2010. Students submitting essays from fall semester courses should seriously consider submitting their essays before the semester break. Please note that essays due in class after March 31 may be submitted for consideration in the 2010-2011 contest.

All submissions must be given to Dr. John Eliason at Robinson House 202. Direct any questions to Dr. Eliason at x6717 or eliason@gonzaga.edu. Thank you.
