

The Cardoner Retreat

UNIVERSITY MINISTRY

Crew Application

The Cardoner Retreat is a retreat for sophomores, juniors and seniors named after the river where St. Ignatius experienced "outstanding illumination." Retreatants enjoy a relaxing weekend in historic Wallace, ID while staff and student crews lead reflections based on themes and practices of Ignatian Spirituality.

Cardoner crew members attend three crew meetings before the retreat weekend on Monday evenings from approximately 9-11 pm. Their main responsibilities include preparing a talk for the retreat weekend, gathering supplies, recruiting participants, building community with the crew and co-leading Focus Gatherings during the retreat weekend.

Please circle the retreat dates for which you are available:

Sept. 30-Oct.2 Nov. 11-13 Feb. 3-5 Mar. 23-25
