THE FLANNERY LECTURE

"The Theology of the Parish"

BY
William J. Rademacher
Flannery Professor

Friday, April 11, 1980

HUGHES AUDITORIUM - GONZAGA UNIVERSITY - 8:00 p.m.

FR. WILLIAM J. RADEMACHER, Ecclesiologist, lecturer and author, is from Ann Arbor, Michigan. Father is the Flannery Professor at Gonzaga University for the academic year 1979-1980.

The FLANNERY CHAIR OF ROMAN CATHOLIC THEOLOGY is an endowed Chair, gift of the late Maud and Milo Flannery of Spokane, to further the excellence of theological study and teaching at Gonzaga University.

The lecture will review the peak periods in the historical evolution of the parish. Then it will discuss the main theological theories regarding the nature and mission of the parish. Finally, it will highlight the main cultural, sociological and theological problems which have emerged since Vatican II and outline possible models and directions for the parish of the future.

Fr. Rademacher will approach his presentation so as to make it available to as large an audience as possible.
