Application > Complete online
• Go to www.gonzaga.edu/macc, click on “Prospective Students” link and then “Apply Now!”
• Applicants must submit a $50 (non-refundable) application fee. The fee will be waived for GU undergraduates, alumni, & employees.

Essay Questions
• As part of your online application, you will be required to submit answers to three essay questions.
  1. What matters most to you and why?
  2. What are your short-term and long-term career objectives?
  3. Why Gonzaga?

Confidential Recommendations > Two online recommendations required
• Online recommendations are to come from professors, supervisors, managers, etc. Character references (i.e. recommendations from family members, friends of family, neighbors, etc.) are not accepted. Applicants to the MAcc program are strongly encouraged to submit at least one recommendation from an accounting professor.
• You will need the names, and contact information of your recommenders to submit with your online application.

Professional Resume > Update your resume
• Update your resume so that all information is accurate.
• Your resume must be submitted electronically with your online application.

Transcripts > Request and submit transcripts
• Please submit one copy of your official transcripts, from each college and university attended, to the mailing address below.
• On your application, please list all colleges attended, even if you took only one course.
• If you are a GU undergraduate or alumnus, you do not need to request your transcripts.
• Transcripts available via eScript-Safe or Clearing House can be sent to chatman@gonzaga.edu.

GMAT > The GMAT exam is required for admission
• 1-800-GMATNOW or www.mba.com for information and registration.
• On the day of the test, request that your scores be sent to the Gonzaga MAcc program: (BMM3182)
• It is recommended that you schedule the exam at least one month in advance to allow for registration and exam prep.
• The GMAT may be waived for certain Gonzaga undergraduate accounting majors. Please contact Dr. Gary Weber for information.
