Financial Assistance:
Financial assistance for international students primarily comes from three sources: graduate assistantships, scholarships, and on-campus employment. Student loan programs are not available to international students. Students interested in on-campus employment should contact the Student Employment Office upon arrival at Gonzaga. A US social security card must be obtained before employment is granted. Students interested in applying for an International Student Scholarships and/or Graduate Assistantships should complete the appropriate application forms that can be found online.

International Student Scholarships:
In the 2013-2014 academic year, over 80% of eligible international students received an International Student Scholarship. These scholarships can pay for up to 50% of tuition in the fall and spring semesters. In order to be eligible, a student must be accepted to Gonzaga’s MBA or M Acc programs, have good academic standing, complete an International Student Scholarship application form by July 1st for Fall semester and December 1st for Spring semester, and have a non-immigrant visa status.

Graduate Assistantships for the School of Business:
Numerous international students also receive Graduate Assistantships (GA) working for the School of Business. GA’s receive $15 per hour and typically work 5-12 hours per week assisting faculty or professional staff members.

English Proficiency Requirements:
- Native English speaker or
- Official minimum TOEFL score of 570 PBT/ 230 CBT/ 88 IBT or
- Minimum score of 6.5 on the IELTS or
- A waiver may be available for students who recently completed a bachelor’s degree at an accredited U.S. college or university

Additional Programs:
Gonzaga offers an English as a Second Language Program (ESL) for those students wanting to gain English language proficiency before applying to a degree program. International students who achieve a score less than 570 (paper) or 230 (CPT) or 88 (IBT) are encouraged to enroll in our ESL program. Students who complete the ESL program will still need to pass the TOEFL exam and have a personal interview. Please e-mail the English Language Center at elc@gonzaga.edu for more information.
