Hughes After Dark is an open forum for introductory biology classes (105 and 106) led by students. This is an informal setting where students will have opportunity to work in groups, ask questions and have an opportunity to learn more about research and upperdivision classes.

SPRING 2016