Fall Family Weekend 2009

Special Events...

ACADEMIC PLANNING!

What courses are students required to take? Who is the advisor and why should your student be seeing him or her? When and how do students register for next term's courses? If you have these or other questions about how your student plans (or should be planning) academic life, join the Office of Academic Services for this open Q & A session where you, too, can learn everything there is to know about academic planning, and how and when you can help!

50-minute sessions, repeated.

Friday, October 23 ~ College Hall 101 3:00p

Saturday, October 24 ~ College Hall 101 9:00a and 11:00a

GU Crew Home Regatta

Saturday, October 24

GU varsity and novice women's and men's crew teams will row on the Spokane River for the last home regatta of the fall season. Race begins at 10:00am, but arrive by 9:00am to see the shells launched. (Check gozags.com for exact times.)

Sunday, October 25

Home Regatta and Fall Family Weekend continues with "Class Day Races." These intersquad and alumni races feature "theme" costumes for each boat. Races begin at 10:00am and festivities continue with a noon BBQ, and an opportunity for family members to learn rowing techniques for an eight-person collegiate rowing shell.

Directions to Charlotte Y. Martin Boathouse

(Approx. 4 miles east of campus):

Take Trent or Mission Avenues east (Mission will merge into Trent). Turn left on Park Road. Follow Park Road across railroad tracks and past a park on the left. Immediately after the park, turn left on the grave road cutting across the field; continue through the gate for 1 mile to the parking lot, past the weather station.

Questions? Please call (509) 313-4228.
