This course offers an introduction to astronomy, highlighting in particular the contributions of Galileo Galilei. Galileo built his own telescope and was the first to point a telescope at the heavens. In discovering the moons of Jupiter he fanned a scientific revolution. Several potential immersion experiences are being investigated: Pisa Cathedral, Museo Galileo, the Vatican Observatory, and a planetarium. Furthermore, learn about stars, galaxies, black holes, and the fate of the universe!