Third Party Sponsors

If your student account balance is to be paid by a corporate or foreign sponsor, a government agency, or a religious institution, a scholarship foundation or trust account, we require written proof of sponsorship from that agency in the Student Accounts Office to settle your account.

Deadline for fall semester: August 4, 2017
Deadline for spring semester: January 2, 2018

Adjustments for Dropped Courses

After classes commence, tuition adjustments for dropped courses will be computed as follows:
- during the first full week of classes – 100%;
- during the second full week of classes – 80%;
- during the third full week of classes – 60%;
- during the fourth full week of classes – 40%.

No refund will be made after the fourth full week of the semester.

Complete Withdrawal from Gonzaga

Students completely withdrawing will obtain a Complete Withdrawal Form from the Law Registrar’s Office. Tuition adjustments are calculated in Student Accounts. Final adjustments are based on the effective dates of complete withdrawals.* Room and Board will be prorated throughout the semester. Financial aid refunds will be returned in accordance with governmental and University regulations.

*The tuition adjustment schedule for complete withdrawals is posted in the Student Accounts Office.

The University reserves the right to change any costs and/or provisions without notice. It further reserves the right to withhold student information, including transcripts of record and diplomas, until said student's account has been paid in full. No student will be allowed to register for an ensuing semester if a balance is owed for a prior semester.

A finance charge of 12% per annum pro rata (365 days) or a rebilling fee of 1% of the total amount due or $2, whichever is greater, will be added to a student’s account on any amount more than 30 days past due.
The mission of Student Financial Services is to assist students in financing and paying for their education at Gonzaga. An important component of this mission involves the Student Accounts Office. We are a team of professionals with many years of experience in helping students make college more affordable. We look forward to working with you. Details regarding the payment options are provided below.
