

Scholarship Application

Gonzaga University Graduate School of Business

Overview

International Student Scholarships provide financial assistance to international students of high promise who demonstrate significant potential and benefit from graduate education. International Graduate Business Student Scholarships applications are evaluated on the basis of academic merit and financial need. Only a minimal number of scholarships are awarded in the fall and spring semesters on a highly competitive basis.

Gonzaga University does not grant scholarship funds for the payment of living expenses, only for partial coverage of tuition. All other expenses must be provided for by the student.
