Orientation Core is a team of students dedicated to uniting the traditions of GU by planning New Student Orientation ’12. Look for O-Core tips throughout this book. See you in August!
Your experience at Orientation will be the beginning of a new chapter as you start your journey as a Zag for life! This is a very special year for Gonzaga as it is the University’s 125th anniversary. Therefore, our theme for this year’s Orientation is “Unite in Tradition.” Orientation Core chose this theme to challenge you to unite with your fellow Zags and transform your future. Gonzaga undoubtedly has a lot of traditions that will make an impression on you and, as fellow Zags, we encourage you to create your own traditions. You are now part of a legacy. Students have come before you and left a part of themselves with Gonzaga, and students who come after you will do the same. This is your chance to transform your future. As Zags for life we are one community and all in this together.

It is up to you what traditions you will become part of and what transformations you will make in our tight-knit and involved community. There are many opportunities in academics, through clubs and organizations, athletics, and community service. Your experiences will challenge you and allow you to grow in mind, body, and spirit. At the end of four years, what will be your lasting, positive impact?

The theme, “Unite in Tradition” is echoed in your required read, “They Come Back Singing,” written by Father Gary Smith. Fr. Smith is a Jesuit who helped transform communities by encouraging them to find the love of Christ and unite in traditions. He shares his stories of working with refugees in Uganda. Whether he is a guiding member of the community or joining in with the local traditions, he’s a force of positive energy who is willing to unite with others.

The Orientation Core team absolutely loved reading this book. We hope you finish the book feeling blessed and appreciative of the life you live and touched by the compassion Fr. Smith demonstrates when working with the refugees on a daily basis. “They Come Back Singing” will make you laugh – and cry – as you read the amazing stories of how communities can truly dig deep down to their roots and find those traditions that unite them. How will you take the themes from this book and live them out in your life?

Professors incorporate the required read into class curricula, and we recommend you read the book before you get to campus so you don’t fall behind. Your pursuit to unite with others and transform your future during your time at Gonzaga starts with reading this book.

Happy reading!
– O-Core

ETHOS STATEMENT:
- respect for oneself
- respect for others
- respect for property
- respect for authority
- honesty & integrity
Your residence hall is more than a place to study and sleep. It’s a place where you meet, live and interact with fascinating people from interesting places; where you develop friendships; where you listen to music, read books, write papers, and discuss assignments with classmates. It is also where you begin learning to live in community with others. Through this, you will learn deeply about yourself, your peers, and your environment.

RESIDENCE LIFE STAFF

One of the first people you will meet is your Resident Assistant (RA), a student who lives on your floor and helps to develop and ensure a sense of community and safety among hall residents. All residence halls and apartments have Residence Life staff who live in the buildings and supervise the overall operation of the buildings. This includes overseeing student programs and activities, and promoting GU student expectations.

EXPECTATIONS

Each student arriving at Gonzaga University is beginning to write the first chapter of his/her personal story. The preface for your life story was written by your parents. The next chapter of your story will be written in the environment of a deep, rich, and lengthy story of Gonzaga University. Start thinking, now, about how you want your story to go! One area of immediate challenge is understanding the expectations Gonzaga University has of students in and out of the classroom. Our expectation is that you internalize our institutional values throughout your academic life and live by our expectations. Many of the expectations revolve around the use of alcohol, and the policies surrounding visiting others, hosting guests, and abiding by noise policies. These are just some of the guiding factors in your GU story.

RESIDENCE HALLS AND ROOMMATE ASSIGNMENTS

You will receive two e-mails from housing. The first e-mail in July (you may have received it already) gives you a tentative building assignment and other important information. A second e-mail in early August will provide you more specific information and confirm your housing assignment and roommate. Please pay attention to communications directly from Housing as this is important information. Room assignments are a complicated process with 3,000 students in 20 residential communities. Give the Housing Office some time to focus on the task.

MOVE-IN REMINDERS:

• Check the Orientation Website and your communications from Housing for details like parking and check-in times.
• Bring a fan; it will be hot in August and most halls aren’t air-conditioned.
• Stay hydrated!

Storage – there is limited space in your rooms. Bringing only the necessities makes packing up at the end of the year much easier. Decide, for instance, whether you will really ride your bicycle frequently or only a couple times when the weather is nice.

Laundry – it’s free! Residence halls have laundry rooms with washers and dryers. Just bring your own detergent and laundry supplies.

Kitchens – some halls have “kitchenettes” that can be used by residents. However, most kitchen supplies are not provided.

Roommates – remember that coming to college is a transition for everyone, so make sure you give your roommate a fair chance. When you receive roommate information in August, say “hello” and coordinate with them so you don’t bring duplicates. The University believes strongly that living in community (including with a roommate) gives students an opportunity to deeply get to know people of differing backgrounds and attitudes. This is intentional and we expect some of these experiences over the years you will be at GU will be ones that prepare you to compete well in an increasingly global marketplace.

Bunk & Loft Kits – most beds are bunkable, and Residence Life staff have the pins necessary if you wish to bunk. If you want to loft your bed so the space under it is empty, you need to reserve a loft kit because kits are limited. Please visit gonzaga.edu/orientation and find the “Loft Kits and Bunk Beds” tab.
The Zag Shop is your on-campus source for all of your course material needs. To help students and parents stay within budget, the Zag Shop strives to provide affordable course materials options – including new and used, print and digital textbooks for purchase or rent. Our most popular option is Rent-A-Text, Follett’s textbook rental program. Rent-A-Text saves students, on average, 50 percent or more compared to purchasing new without sacrificing the ability to highlight and take notes within the normal wear and tear associated with coursework. To register for the rental program or to learn more, visit www.rent-a-text.com.

We also offer a growing selection of digital textbooks, representing great savings and a much lighter backpack. Our CafeScribe digital textbook platform facilitates smarter learning by allowing students and professors to share notes and insights with one another in line with the text, as well as navigate content in easy, new ways with organizational tools that can be used to suit their individual study needs. CafeScribe even offers a three-day “Try Now, Buy Later” free trial for digital textbooks. Try for three days, and buy the book later if you like the digital textbook learning experience. To learn more visit www.CafeScribe.com.

This fall, the Zag Shop will also offer Inkling digital textbooks. Inkling titles include numerous features such as video, interactive assessments, animation, music, slideshows and 3D models. Students can purchase an entire Inkling textbook or choose to “Pick 3” – a cost-saving alternative that allows students to buy just three chapters for a fraction of the price of a full textbook.

The Zag Shop leverages online ordering with in-store service to provide unmatched convenience and choice to students, faculty, staff and alumni. Simply visit www.gonzagau.bkstr.com to order your course materials online and have them shipped directly to you or choose in-store pick up for even more savings.

How Much Should I Expect to Spend on Textbooks?

On average, you will spend about $500 on textbooks per semester. The cost is also dependent on your course of study and availability of used books.

O-CORE TIP:

How do I know what textbooks I need?

The easiest way to find out – after you receive your class schedule in August – is to go to the gonzagau.bkstr.com and follow the “Books” tab. Professors assign textbooks as “optional text” or “required text.” However, it may be smarter to wait to buy your books if there is a possibility you will drop or add a class.
Mail Services
Location: Lower Crosby
Phone: (509) 313-5697

The Gonzaga Mailroom provides services that include receiving of packages/mail via USPS, Fed Ex and UPS. The Mailroom provides all services a US Postal sub-station does including receiving certified, insured, priority, express, first class and parcel letters and packages. In addition to shipping out packages the Mailroom sells mailing and packing materials.

The Mailroom will be open on Saturday, August 25th and Sunday, August 26th for Orientation but is normally closed weekends during the academic year. The Mailroom is also closed on all Gonzaga University holidays.

Undergraduate students living on campus MUST have a mailbox (called an "MSC Box") in order to receive packages and mail. Mail cannot be delivered to residence halls or apartments. There is ABSOLUTLY NO SHARING OF MAILBOXES due to security reasons.

Packages may be shipped starting August 1st. Once you arrive on campus, come to the Crosby Center to pick up your key and your packages. When you have a package to pick up, there will be a slip from Mail Services in your mailbox. Just bring this slip to the Mailroom to claim your package.

O-CORE TIP:
Avoid long lines by paying for your mailbox using CASHNET at commerce.cashnet.com/gumailservices.
CLASS SCHEDULES

You will receive an e-mail in early August notifying you when your official schedule will be available for viewing.

Schedules are composed by the Office of Academic Advising and Assistance for all incoming first-semester students, which includes all freshmen and any student directly out of high school, regardless of transfer credits.

Advisors will then compose a schedule for you consistent with a four year graduation path, meeting University and College/School core, as well as requirements for your selected major course of study. Classes are chosen based on these requirements, along with the interests and likes you requested in an online registration questionnaire.

SCHEDULE CHANGES

Tuesday, Aug. 2nd – Friday, Aug. 10th

This is your first opportunity to work with your freshman registration advisor regarding your official course schedule, and to request changes.

Orientation Weekend, Aug. 24th & 25th

This is your second opportunity to request changes to your schedule, with an academic advisor. You must be present to request changes. We recommend that you do not buy textbooks before your class schedule is finalized.

ADVISORS

Orientation staff will provide you with the name and location of your advisor on the Monday of Orientation, prior to the pre-assigned advisor meetings. During this time you can get to know your advisor, discuss your academic plans, and review your class schedule.

Among the many transitions you face coming to college, one of the most noticeable will be with your academics. College courses have higher expectations and, with your future on the line, it can be a lot to take in, but you don’t have to face these challenges alone. Resources such as professors, advisors, and the Office of Academic Advising and Assistance are eager to help you succeed. To facilitate an easier transition, there will be an academic information session on Saturday during Orientation. Monday, August 27th, signifies the start of the academic year with Monday ONLY classes starting, Academic Convocation, advisor meetings, and academic discussion panels.
5 TIPS TO ACADEMIC SUCCESS

1. Become a master at time management, plan ahead and don’t procrastinate!

2. Use good study skills and keep on top of your homework.

When you come to campus there are many adjustments to make. We are happy to provide you with support through counseling and consultation. Sometimes it helps just knowing there is a safe place and people available to you so you can ask questions and talk about how you are feeling about your college experience.

The Counseling Center provides both personal and career counseling. Counselors can help with: depression, anxiety, identity issues, previous trauma, homesickness, grief and loss, sexuality, sleep problems, stress, eating disorders, anger, adjusting to a new living situation, and referrals for medication assessment and management. Counselors can also help with questions and issues related to career discernment. This may include uncertainty about a career major, stress and anxiety related to career decision making, and worries about future job and professional opportunities.

All interactions between students and counselors are strictly confidential and are not subject to disclosure without a student’s specific permission. If a student is at risk of harm to self or others, confidentiality may be broken for safety purposes.

We want your experience here to be one of connection and enjoyment which will result in you feeling successful on many levels at college. We encourage you to contact us if you have any questions or concerns.

The Campus Public Safety and Security (CPS&S) Department is a service-oriented organization that promotes safety, security, education, and personal responsibility.

Patrol: Campus Public Safety and Security officers provide proactive patrol of the campus and University areas designed to detect and deter crime and facilitate a safe environment for the members of our community. Patrols in and around the residence halls are a priority. Officers respond to a variety of incidents on campus including fire alarms, medical calls, and reports of criminal activity. CPS&S officers work in conjunction with Residence Hall staff, University administration, and local police to seek compliance with and enforcement of Gonzaga policies, state laws, and local ordinances.

Security Dispatch: A CPS&S Communications Center is staffed by security dispatchers 24/7. Community members are encouraged to call security at (509) 313-2222 to request assistance or report suspicious persons or circumstances. There are also phones indicated by blue lights around campus that can be used in emergencies.

Parking & Permits: First-year students may purchase parking permits. However, many freshmen choose not to, as there is not a great need and parking is very limited. Student parking permits are $95 per year and are purchased in the CPS&S office. Parking enforcement is conducted year-round.

Rides: CPS&S officers can provide a security escort to any area on campus, as well as a portion of the Logan neighborhood adjacent to GU. Additionally, the Gonzaga Student Body Association offers a “safe ride” with a local taxi company. See page 20.

Neighborhood: The risk of crime increases away from campus. Students should take particular note that nearly all of the assaults reported to Security last year took place off-campus between 11 pm and 3 am on the weekends. Students are encouraged to avoid walking through the neighborhood during late night hours and to utilize Security escorts.

Bikes: We strongly recommend a high quality U-type lock and strongly discourage cable and chain locks. CPS&S sells high quality U-type locks at a discounted price to students. Some residence halls have bike storage – contact your RA or RD as soon as you arrive to arrange access. Visit the CPS&S Website or office at Welch Hall to register your bike.

Policies, Rules, & Expectations:
The Student Handbook contains important information about policies, rules, and expectations. Take some time to look over the Handbook and become familiar with the information. The alcohol, drug, and weapons policies are particularly important. Avoid bringing items to campus that are prohibited.

Stay Informed: Preventing crime is a team effort involving all Gonzaga community members. Our goal is to share accurate information in a timely manner with our community regarding crime, crime prevention, and campus security and safety issues. In doing so, our hope is that this education will help each of us to make good decisions regarding our own personal safety and the safety of others.
The Gonzaga Student Body Association (GSBA) welcomes all new students. As your student government, GSBA is here to serve you.

The GSBA provides a great opportunity to be directly involved with on-campus programming and learn about how GSBA works.

Elections: Get involved in a GSBA leadership role! Elections for class officers (Freshman Class President and Vice President) and Freshmen Senators will be held in early fall. Applications for the GAB Street Team are available as well.

There are also positions on the GSBA President’s Council who are appointed to various University committees as active voting student representatives. Joining student government is a great way to get connected, meet new people and make a positive difference at our school. Questions about these positions or ways to get involved are welcome! Call the GSBA office or e-mail the Chief of Staff at gsba-chiefofstaff@zagmail.gonzaga.edu.

Readership Program: GSBA offers free New York Times and Spokesman Review newspapers to all GU students. Get yours at several campus locations every academic day.

Safe Ride: Need a ride to get you home from a compromising situation? Or a safe ride back to campus or your residence? It’s on us! To use this service, have your student ID ready and call Spokane Cab at (509) 568-8000.
Check out gonzaga.edu/community. This site encompasses involvement opportunities including: clubs, organizations, club sports, and honor societies.

gonzaga.edu/intramurals

Play to win, or just play for fun! Gonzaga Intramurals has opportunities for everyone to participate and socialize in safe, organized and fun sporting events. GU Intramurals has become one of the largest and most involved student programs on campus. The GU Intramurals program has also been cited in the Princeton Review as being ranked No. 6th nationally for “Everyone Plays Intramural Sports.” The Intramural Office also offers job opportunities for students who are interested in becoming a scorekeeper, official, office worker, or student supervisor. Intramurals has 20 Federal Work Study positions and hires Institutional (paid, non-Work Study) staff as needed. No previous officiating experience is required, but it is preferred. The Intramural Office provides training sessions that assist staff in developing the skills and abilities needed in all of the sports offered. The Intramural Office strives to assist the staff in gaining valuable experience in leadership, communication, decision making, event coordination, and responsibility.

Club Sports
E-mail: studentactivities@gonzaga.edu
Phone: (509) 313-6123

Club Sports are designed as an athletic alternative, bridging the gap between intramural and intercollegiate programs. Basketball, lacrosse, and volleyball are among the many club sports currently offered. The basic philosophy and key to the success of the programs is student involvement in their coordination and administration. We place emphasis on participation in competition, as well as offering students the opportunity to be recognized as collegiate athletes while competing against other universities. Students organize each club and select coaches who volunteer their services.

Gonzaga Outdoors
Location: Lower Crosby
E-mail: outdoors@gonzaga.edu
Phone: (509) 313-4189

As an outreach of the Student Activities Office, the Gonzaga Outdoors program is a resource for students interested in participating in and learning about outdoor recreation. Guided outdoor excursions such as rafting, hiking, or skiing trips are offered to students on a regular basis throughout the school year. Gonzaga Outdoors also offers various educational workshops addressing skills and safety. In addition to low-cost guided adventures, Gonzaga Outdoors seeks to aid the independent outdoor enthusiast by providing trip planning information and a variety of equipment for rent at very reasonable rates.

O-CORE TIP:

Freshmen Games are designed to introduce the “ins and outs” of Intramurals. Intramurals offers 22 sports and events throughout the school year and more information can be found on the Website.
The Center for Community Action and Service-Learning (CCASL) is a department within the division of Student Life at Gonzaga with a mission of “developing student leaders with an ethic of service and a life-long thirst for social justice.” You can participate in a variety of programs that help the community, while at the same time forming lifelong friendships. CCASL’s programs are student-developed and led, providing opportunities to get involved in three distinct ways:

CO-CURRICULAR PROGRAMS:

- April’s Angels – is a one-day Gonzaga community event in April that offers resources and time to provide critical repairs for our low-income neighbors in the Logan Neighborhood.
- Campus Kitchens – provides meals for different organizations and underprivileged members of our community each week from the overflow of food at Sodexo’s on-campus dining facilities. Student volunteers prepare, serve, and/or deliver valuable food.
- Gonzaga University Specialized Recreation (GUSR) – provides recreational activities, care, and support for developmentally disabled adults in the Spokane Community. They oversee programs such as the Special Olympics, two plays during the semester, basketball, bowling, dance parties, and The Way of the Heart Retreat.

Homeless Outreach – supports the homeless population in the Spokane Community and raises awareness in the GU community. Homeless outreach oversees Food For Thought, which is an annual dinner where homeless and low income families can connect over a meal with community members.

- Just Desserts – is a social justice series that provides a forum for students, faculty, and staff to engage in open dialogue about pertinent social justice issues and encourages civic action in the community.
- Recycled Notebooks – is an environmentally sustainable project run by CCASL. We take one-sided white paper and unrecyclable product boxes to create truly unique notebooks.
- Zags Encouraging Student & Senior Togetherness (ZESST) – is a senior citizen outreach program that works with the elderly at Maplewood Gardens assisted living in the Logan Neighborhood.

SERVICE IMMERSION PROGRAMS:

- Justice in January – is a service immersion program that uses the framework of the Social Change Model to best understand ourselves, our group of GU students, and the community in which we will serve. JIJ takes place during the last week of Christmas break, and will work with immigrant populations in Arizona and California, as well as other service activities.
- Mission:Possible – takes over a hundred GU students to ten different cities across the United States during Spring Break. Each site has a different service focus, for example, some sites serve alongside the homeless, work at construction sites, focus on environmental work, or participate in a Native American cultural immersion.
- Spring Break Spokane – serves and builds relationships with the refugee population in Spokane during Spring Break. Currently, Spokane is home to refugees from Afghanistan, Burma, Bhutan, Burundi, Cuba, Eritrea, Iraq, Kyrgyzstan, Moldova, Liberia, Russia, Rwanda, Somalia, Sudan, Turkey, Ukraine, Uzbekistan, Vietnam, and others.

MENTORING AND TUTORING:

By far, the most popular of service projects at Gonzaga, our award-winning mentoring and tutoring programs provide guidance for elementary and middle school youth in Spokane.

- Earthbound – is a program that takes GU student volunteers to local middle schools to run after-school activities that are fun and environmentally educational.
- Gonzaga Athletes Mentoring for Excellence (GAME) – uses athletics and social interactions to increase the self-esteem and resilience of its middle school youth. It’s just like teaching physical education classes!
- Project Eye to Eye – is a one-on-one mentoring program that pairs Gonzaga students who have a learning disability or ADHD with middle school students who have the same or a similar disability. Activities are focused around college students and youth doing art projects and getting to know one another!
Self-Esteem Mentors Increasing Life’s Excitement (SMILE) – provides hourly sessions in which Gonzaga volunteers play games and teach positive lessons to elementary school youth.

Zag Study Buddies – builds relationships between Gonzaga students and children from a variety of Spokane public schools through after-school tutoring.

Campus Kids – is a campus-based one-on-one mentoring program designed to help children grades 4-6 succeed in academics and relationship building. Each year Gonzaga students volunteer as mentors and are matched with at-risk youth from five local elementary schools.

Connections – is a one-on-one mentoring program that pairs Gonzaga students with 7th and 8th graders at Shaw and Garry Middle Schools for mentoring and relationship-building purposes. It was developed to promote academic success and reduce the high school dropout rate.

Visit CCASL’s Open House and BBQ from 11 am to 2 pm on Friday, August 31st.
Our mission is to provide educational opportunities that cultivate mindfulness, intercultural development and support the benefits of a pluralistic and inclusive environment. Throughout the year, we provide several innovative programs and activities that honor and affirm the value of human difference and encourage the development of self-knowledge, self-acceptance, a restless curiosity, a desire for truth, a mature concern for others, and justice that supports equity and inclusion.

Multicultural Honor Society (MCHS) – promotes high scholarship, an appreciation for scholarly work and academic endeavors of others, recognizes leadership and service, and values human difference. Membership is selective and nominees must have completed at least 45 credits with a minimum of 3.2 GPA. Emphasis is placed on identifying and recognizing students from traditionally underrepresented populations at Gonzaga.

Chi-Urban Excursion – is an alternative spring break educational immersion that allows students to gain practical knowledge outside of the classroom setting about the realities of diversity in an urban environment in the heart of Chicago. This unique trip provides insights on multiple world views relative to race, religion, class, and more for those who choose to embark upon the journey!

Also known by the abbreviation AMDG, is the motto of the Society of Jesus. In English, the motto means “To the greater glory of God.” The spirit of generous excellence in which all ministry and study is engaged.
Besides earning money to help pay for college, working teaches students a lot about how to become better organized and able to prioritize the varying demands of college life. Having a job can also be an important part of the Gonzaga experience as it often enhances what is taught in the classroom and prepares students for their career after graduation. Working is a fact of life. On-campus employment can help you hone in on a career you enjoy.

STATE WORK STUDY

State Work Study (SWS) is an off-campus employment program funded by both federal funds and Gonzaga matching funds. Eligibility for SWS is based on financial need as determined by the FAFSA and is awarded only to eligible Washington state residents. Students are encouraged to visit Student Employment to discuss job locations if transportation is a concern.

- A list of SWS jobs will be available August 7th on the Website.

INSTITUTIONAL

Institutional positions are on-campus jobs funded entirely through a department’s budget. They may be difficult to find, especially for the entering student, but any enrolled Gonzaga student is eligible to apply for these positions. Since departments do not necessarily post their job openings with the Student Employment Office, you may want to contact departments directly to check on available positions.

- You may request an e-mailed list of Institutional jobs by e-mailing guevara@gonzaga.edu beginning August 13th.

STEPS TO GETTING AN ON-CAMPUS JOB

Community Job Board

Area individuals and businesses looking to hire Gonzaga students may post their part-time jobs at gonzaga.edu/studentemployment.

To learn about many jobs, attend the Student Employment On-Campus Job Fair on Monday, August 27th from 12 – 2 pm in Cataldo Hall.

Please bring these original documents with you in order to complete your on-campus hiring paperwork:

- In order to complete the I-9 and W-4 hiring forms that are required for all first-time workers, students must present one of the following original documents: unexpired passport, original social security card, or birth certificate. Copies cannot be accepted.
- All students are paid by Direct Deposit, so bring your bank information, including your account and routing numbers.

Go abroad, ZAGS! Your freshman year is a good time to start researching where you want to go, when you want to go, and the length of time you want to study abroad. Visit the Study Abroad Office to talk to an advisor about your options. Meet with your academic advisor during your freshman year to share your plan to study abroad, so they can help you plan your coursework and save classes that will be offered abroad. During your freshman year, get to know at least two professors well so that when you apply to study abroad in the beginning of your sophomore year, you will know whom to ask to write your academic recommendations. Besides having a qualifying GPA, students are required to have conduct clearance from the Student Life Office before they will be accepted for study abroad.

We know that sending your student off to college can be a unique journey. The Orientation Core team (O-Core) provides this booklet to help your student and your family navigate this important transition.

In addition to this booklet, your student will receive all necessary information about Orientation from the newsletters, the Orientation website (gonzaga.edu/orientation), and via direct communications from University departments.

We encourage you to empower your student to deal with any of the obstacles they face at college. Rather than solving their problems for them, simply be there to provide guidance and support. If you need additional help, our Parent & Family Office is here to help.

With Orientation Weekend fast approaching, we hope that you have already made travel plans and arranged for accommodations during your stay, as area hotels fill up fast. We look forward to meeting your student and your family during Orientation. Enjoy your summer!
