MESSAGE FROM THE UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

WELCOME!

All of us at the University – faculty, staff and administration – look forward to seeing our returning students, and to greeting those of you who are new to the Gonzaga community, this fall. Welcome to Gonzaga’s 124th year!

Gonzaga is, without question, a unique and special place. We are blessed with a dedicated faculty and staff who not only excel in their disciplines and professions, but care deeply about students and the issues that concern them. A big part of the “Gonzaga Experience” involves both rejoicing in, and facing the challenges of, what it means to be living “in communion” with one another. This Handbook is intended to assist you in that endeavor. We hope that Gonzaga is for you, and for every student, a place of opportunity, of discovery, and a home.

My own experience of Gonzaga started, like yours, as a student. I lived in the residence halls, attended retreats at Bozarth, slogged through sleepless nights writing papers, and ate pizza of questionable vintage. I was challenged by my professors – and my friends – to answer the tough questions and ponder the mysteries of life. All along the way, I made great friends and had a lot of fun as well. During my travels, alumni share stories of their experiences at Gonzaga that are remarkably similar to my own. What resonates for me is this: even as Gonzaga continues to develop and evolve, at its heart it is still doing what it does best – it is a place that challenges people to a life of discovery, while asking people to live within a framework of values, informed by faith-filled Jesuit ethos, that is intended to be helpful not only today, but for life.

I hope and pray that your Gonzaga experience will be the same: an experience of learning, friendship, faith and discovery.

Best wishes to you now and throughout the academic year.

Sincerely yours,

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "Thayne M. McCulloh". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a large initial "T" and "M".

Thayne M. McCulloh, D.Phil. (B.A., 1989)

MESSAGE FROM THE VICE PRESIDENT FOR STUDENT LIFE

Dear Gonzaga Students,

I am pleased to welcome you to Gonzaga University for the upcoming academic year. You are part of a talented student body that is nationally recognized for its academic excellence, energy, creativity, and compassion for one another.

The Student Handbook is intended to acquaint new students and remind returning students about all the University has to offer and help you get the most out of the “Gonzaga Experience”. Since all students are subject to the provisions of this handbook, and are expected to become familiar with its contents, I urge you to read it carefully; use it wisely, and to follow its guidelines.

All of us in the University are genuinely concerned with the welfare, growth and enrichment of our students. We work together in an attempt to provide you as a student with every opportunity to learn, grow, develop, and reach your full potential as a valued member of the Gonzaga community. On behalf of the Division of Student Life, I congratulate you on being a true Gonzaga Zag. I hope you will give unselfishly of your talents to both enrich and benefit from the opportunities and quality of life a Jesuit education has to offer. In return Gonzaga’s education will contribute to your formation and unification of the body, mind and spirit. Enjoy your 2011-2012 academic year.

Sincerely yours,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Sue Weitz". The signature is written in dark ink and is positioned above the printed name.

Sue Weitz, Ph.D.

Vice President for Student Life

MESSAGE FROM THE GSBA PRESIDENT

To students of the Gonzaga community,

On behalf of the Gonzaga Student Body Association, I proudly welcome you to Gonzaga University's 124th academic year! This academic year is built on a foundation of a Catholic, Jesuit education that extends beyond the classroom – addressing and permitting the fulfillment of one's whole self in mind, body, and spirit. We come together this year to continue this tradition and further embrace a history that has long since demanded much of its community.

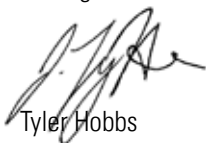

This year we commemorate the extraordinary abilities of our student population – those new and returning to the Gonzaga family – and also celebrate the extraordinary potential that each student possesses. Having been admitted to this institution, an institution admittedly founded on excellence and expectation, it is then recognized that our potential exists and exists with great magnitude.

Like with any year, the months ahead will prove unpredictable and unyielding – bringing to light our strengths, vulnerabilities, prejudices, potentials, and passions. We must then, as persons of God and members of this esteemed Zag community, relish the opportunity to improve. We must seize every opportunity to both challenge and affirm what we believe, what we know, and what we stand for. We must seek the betterment of ourselves and of this world, acknowledging that in doing so we actively take part in the mission that is this university.

As the year progresses, we will continue to define and shape Gonzaga for all that it is and all that it will become. Remember to not only be a part of this community, but be also an active part. Savor experiences like The Kennel, Orientation, GUSR, Crosby, HERO, GSBA, Bridge, Intramurals, and the like. Cherish the time we have with one another and embrace the many similarities and differences that we each possess. Recognize that there is no other place in the world like Gonzaga University and that, most importantly, there is no other community like this one. Embrace it.

I am Zag; I am Bulldog; together, We are Gonzaga.

Go Zags!

Tyler Hobbs
Student Body President
