

DEGREE GUIDE FOR THE COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES CONCENTRATIONS -- 2009-2011

CATHOLIC STUDIES: 21 CREDITS

NOTE: No more than six credits from any one department can count towards meeting concentration requirements. No more than a total of nine credits combined from the Philosophy and Religious Studies Departments (excluding the required RELI 22 Catholicism course) can count towards meeting concentration requirements.

Concentration Required Courses:	GRD		Electives (with CA attribute):	12 credits
				GRD
RELI 220 Catholicism	3	[]	_____	[]
CATH 499 Catholic Studies Symposium	3	[]	_____	[]
Course in Catholic Church History:			_____	[]
	3	[]	_____	[]

WOMEN'S AND GENDER STUDIES: 21 CREDITS

Concentration Lower Division:	GRD
WGST 201 Sex, Gender & Society	3	[]	_____
WGST 200 level Electives:	0 – 6 credits		_____
		[]	_____
		[]	_____
		[]	_____
Concentration Upper Division:	GRD
WGST 300 level and above electives*	6 – 12 credits		_____
		[]	_____
		[]	_____
		[]	_____
WGST 401 Feminist Thought	3	[]	_____
WGST 499 Symposium	3	[]	_____

NOTE: Component courses have a "C" suffix.
A maximum of 6 (six) elective credits may be component "C" courses with the remainder of electives being full WGST courses. (See catalogue page 129).

Students should also note the policy in the catalogue on multiple usage of courses for meeting degree requirements in the WGST concentration and the core or major/minor. (See catalogue page 32, section F, number 2):
"An UPPER DIVISION course can be used to fulfill a requirement for more than one major and/or minor. Any upper division course cross-listed with Women's and Gender Studies (WGST) or Catholic Studies (CATH) may fulfill core requirements as well. No permission is necessary."