History

One of the most frequently asked questions about Gonzaga University is the origin of the name. Who was St. Aloysius Gonzaga? He is an Italian Jesuit saint of the 16th century. In 1887 when Father Joseph Cataldo (pictured below), an Italian born Jesuit, founded Gonzaga College in Spokane, Washington, it seemed fitting to name the new school after his fellow Jesuit and fellow Italian, St. Aloysius Gonzaga.

Aloysius is the Latin form of Gonzaga's given name, Luigi. In English, the equivalent form would be Louis. The Gonzaga name is well known in Italy. Aloysius Gonzaga was born at Castiglione near Mantua, Italy, in 1568 to a celebrated family of wealth and prestige. As the first born son of his father, Ferrante, and his mother, Marta, he was in line to inherit his father's title of Marquis. He grew up amid the violence and brutality of the Renaissance Italy and witnessed the murder of two of his brothers. In 1576, Aloysius' parents sent him to attend the court of the Grand Duke of Tuscany, Francesco de' Medici, in Florence. Later, accompanied by his parents, he traveled to Spain to join the court of Philip II in Madrid.

In Spain, Aloysius decided he wanted to join the newly founded religious order, The Society of Jesus. His father resisted his decision and there followed a struggle of wills that continued after his return to Castiglione in 1584. But Aloysius eventually prevailed. Renouncing his right to the title of Marquis and to the vast wealth he was destined to inherit, he entered the Society of Jesus in Rome on November 25, 1585. During his early studies in Rome, he would regularly go out into the streets of the city to care for victims of the plague. He himself contracted the disease as a result of his efforts for the suffering and died on June 21, 1591, at the age of twenty-three, six years short of his ordination as a Jesuit priest.

Even before his time as a Jesuit, Aloysius was known for his love of prayer and fasting. He received his First Communion from St. Charles Borromeo. As a Jesuit at the Roman College, he continued to devote his time to prayer and practices of austerity. His spiritual director was Robert Bellarmine who later was canonized and declared a doctor of the church. When Robert was dying, he asked to be buried next to the grave of Aloysius. Today, they rest next to each other in the church of St. Ignatius Loyola in Rome. Pope Benedict XIII canonized Aloysius in 1726, and three years later declared him to be the patron of youth in the Catholic Church, an honor later confirmed by Pope Pius XI in 1926.

Adjacent to our university campus is a parish church, St. Aloysius. A statue of Aloysius stands outside the church, representing the saint carrying in his arms a victim of the plague. Two miles north of the university is a Jesuit secondary school also named in honor of the saint, Gonzaga Preparatory School. Gonzaga University in Spokane is the only Jesuit university in the world named after St. Aloysius.

Gonzaga University Mission Statement

Gonzaga University is an exemplary learning community that educates students for lives of leadership and service for the common good.

In keeping with its Catholic, Jesuit, and humanistic heritage and identity, Gonzaga models and expects excellence in academic and professional pursuits and intentionally develops the whole person -- intellectually, spiritually, culturally, physically, and emotionally.

Through engagement with knowledge, wisdom, and questions informed by classical and contemporary perspectives, Gonzaga cultivates in its students the capacities and dispositions for reflective and critical thought, lifelong learning, spiritual growth, ethical discernment, creativity, and innovation.

The Gonzaga experience fosters a mature commitment to dignity of the human person, social justice, diversity, intercultural competence, global engagement, solidarity with the poor and vulnerable, and care for the planet. Grateful to God, the Gonzaga community carries out this mission with responsible stewardship of our physical, financial, and human resources.

Awards & Accolades

Sure, Gonzaga's got "game." Its basketball teams have made Gonzaga a household word nationwide. But Gonzaga is equally proud of its students' success and its long history of academic excellence.

U.S. News & World Report 2019

Gonzaga is the No. 4 best regional university in the West and the No. 6 best value. Gonzaga's School of Engineering and Applied Science is the 18th best (tie) engineering program nationwide (at engineering schools whose highest degree is a bachelor's or master's). Gonzaga is No. 2 in the West for its graduation rate of 87 percent and is No. 3 on its first-year student retention rate of 93 percent. Gonzaga ranks No. 1 among the West's regional universities for its commitment to undergraduate teaching, No. 3 for best colleges for veterans, and No. 7 (tie) for most innovative schools.

Zags Top Nation in Graduation Success Rate

Gonzaga student-athletes are graduating at a rate of 99 percent according to the latest Graduation Success Rate (GSR) numbers released by the NCAA (November 2017), which is tied for the highest percentage in the nation.

Class of 2017 Success Rate

Ninety-five percent of the Gonzaga graduates who received their bachelor's or graduate degrees with the class of 2017 reported they are employed (full- or part-time), continuing their education or doing volunteer work.

Back-to-Back Strongest Academic Classes

The 1,200 first-year students Gonzaga welcomed to campus in late August (2018) represent one of the two brightest academic classes in its 131-year history — a virtual tie with the class entering in 2017.

Study Abroad Excellence

A total of 654 Gonzaga University undergraduates studied abroad in 2016-17, a 22.5 percent increase from the previous year, to rank GU No. 14 nationwide (among peer institutions) for the number of undergraduates who studied abroad last year. The new data indicate 52.6 percent of all Gonzaga undergraduates study abroad by the time they graduate, a milestone for Gonzaga.

Fiske Guide to Colleges 2019

Gonzaga University is included among the best 323 U.S., Canadian and British colleges and universities featured in the “Fiske Guide to Colleges 2019,” the publication – a top independent guide to the best schools for more than 30 years – announced.

A Sustainable ‘Cool School’

Sierra magazine has named Gonzaga to its 12th annual “Cool Schools” list, recognizing the 269 colleges, universities and community colleges in the United States and Canada with the best environmental practices.

The Princeton Review

Gonzaga University is again among the nation’s best institutions for undergraduate education, according to the 2019 edition of The Princeton Review’s annual college guidebook, “The Best 384 Colleges.”

Kiplinger’s Best College Value

Kiplinger’s Personal Finance magazine, in December 2017, ranks Gonzaga the No. 48 best value among private universities in the nation.

Opus Prize Host

Gonzaga University hosted the 2014 Opus Prize Foundation Award Ceremony and Process. One of the world’s major efforts to honor and support faith-based humanitarian work, the annual award includes a $1 million prize and two $100,000 runner-up honors to individuals whose work has yet to receive widespread recognition.

Zag Climbs to National Championship

Gonzaga honors math student Hannah Tolson captured the national championship in women’s sport rock climbing in 2017 after forming a competitive club at Gonzaga to pursue her passion. In 2018, she competed in the 2018 World University Championships in Bratislava, Slovakia.
