NOTE: The WGST program offers a twenty-one credit minor in Women's Studies. There are three required courses: WGST 201 or 202, WGST 401, and WGST 499. Students also select four elective courses in several disciplines, including English literature, history, philosophy, political science, religious studies and sociology. A maximum of six elective credits may be lower-division courses with a WGST number. Further, a maximum of six elective credits may be component courses ("C" suffix), with the remainder of electives being upper-division electives with a WGST number or full women's studies courses.

Full women's studies courses systematically use the methods, themes, and approaches of feminist scholarship throughout the semester. In component courses, one-third to one-half of the course material addresses gender issues and/or uses feminist perspectives. A maximum of nine credits may be taken in any one discipline.

WGST 401 will not be included in this count.
