

Voice Area Recital

Annie Flood, piano

Monday, November 23rd

Live Streamed from
The Myrtle Woldson
Performing Arts Center
Recital Hall

5:30 pm

Featuring students from the voice studios of Amy Porter & Darnelle Preston

PROGRAM

O del mio amato ben

Stefano Donaudy
(1879-1925)

Dora Huestis, mezzo-soprano

Bitte

Robert Franz
(1815-1892)

William DeKlotz, baritone

Lied der Mignon

Franz Schubert
(1797-1828)

Mina Lagrange, soprano

Per la gloria d'adorarvi
Griselda

Giovanni Bononcini
(1670-1747)

Kate Sprague, soprano

Der stürmische Morgen
Winterreise

Franz Schubert
(1797-1828)

Ryan Hayes, baritone

Bel piacere
Agrippina

G.F. Handel
(1685-1759)

Mary Sherden, soprano

The Silver Swan

Orlando Gibbons
(1583-1625)

Emily Andresen, soprano

La paloma blanca

arr. Edward Kilenyi
(1910-2000)

Ian Grooms, baritone

Les Presents

Audrey Stevenson, soprano

Gabriel Fauré
(1845-1924)

Scheiden und Meiden

Des Knaben Wunderhorn

Anna Carparelli, soprano

Gustav Mahler
(1859-1924)

Les Berceaux

Lauren Miller, mezzo-soprano

Gabriel Fauré
(1845-1924)

Now Sleeps the Crimson Petal

Holden Smith, tenor

Roger Quilter
(1877-1953)

Gretchen am Spinnrade

Anna Hermes, soprano

Franz Schubert
(1797-1828)

Au bord de l'eau

Robert Waltenbaugh, tenor

Gabriel Fauré
(1845-1924)

Upcoming Events

(All events will premiere on a live stream at the time and date listed)

Candlelight Christmas Concert (evening)	Saturday, Dec. 12 th	7:00 pm
Candlelight Christmas Concert (matinee)	Sunday, Dec. 13 th	3:00 pm

Register and find links to attend these events on the Gonzaga University 2020-2021 Performance Calendar

Annie Flood is the staff collaborative pianist at Gonzaga University. She accompanies several choirs in the Spokane area, including the Spokane Kantorei Choir and local school groups. Annie currently serves as pianist, organist, and cantor at Hamblen Park Presbyterian Church and St. Aloysius Church. She has performed extensively as a musical theatre musician, including with Coeur D'Alene Summer Theatre, Spokane Valley Summer Theatre, and the Spokane Civic Theatre. Annie earned her Master of Music in vocal accompanying from the Peabody Conservatory of Johns Hopkins University, and her Bachelor of Arts in music from the University of Notre Dame.