

Laurie Arnold, PhD

Selected Professional Experience

Gonzaga University

Director, Native American Studies
Assistant Professor of History

Spokane, WA

The University of Notre Dame

Director, Native American Initiatives
Assistant Director, Institute for Scholarship in the Liberal Arts

Notre Dame, IN

The Newberry Library

The D'Arcy McNickle Center for American Indian and Indigenous Studies
Associate, Interim, Assistant Director

Chicago, IL

Selected Publications

Books

- Bartering with the Bones of Their Dead: The Colville Tribes and Termination, University of Washington Press 2012

Articles

- "More Than Mourning Dove: Christine Quintasket, Activist, Leader, Public Intellectual," in Montana the Magazine of Western History, Montana Historical Society, Vol. 67, no. 1 (pp. 27-45) 2017
- "The Ground Floor of a Movement: The National Indian Gaming Association and the Indian Gaming Regulatory Act," in the Western Historical Quarterly, published by Oxford University Press Forthcoming Winter 2017
- "Finding Mourning Dove in the Lucullus V. McWhorter Papers," in Collection Management, published by Taylor & Francis, co-authored with Cheryl Gunselman Forthcoming Summer 2017
- "Contextualizing Indian Gaming for the National Gambling Impact Study," UNLV Center for Gaming Research Occasional Papers Series, No. 37, November 2016 2016
http://gaming.unlv.edu/papers/cgr_op37_arnold.pdf
- "Finding Mourning Dove's Authentic Voice: An Introduction through Letters and Manuscripts," co-authored with Emma Noyes (Colville tribal member) and Ivy Wood (Gonzaga alumna), in Native Women of North America, Women and Social Movements in Modern Empires database, Alexander Street Press 2016

Solicited Contributions to Peer-Reviewed Publications

- Foreword, "Hang Them All": George Wright and the Plateau Indian War, 1858, University of Oklahoma Press, (p. xi). 2016

Selected Conference Presentations

- "The Columbia River Treaty as a Site of Convergence on the Indigenous Plateau," Western History Association Meeting, Saint Paul, MN October 2016
- Co-Leader, "Creating Institutional Space for Native American and Indigenous Studies: A Workshop," Pacific Northwest American Studies Association, Walla Walla, WA April 2016
- "Indigenous Communities Protecting the Columbia River: Designing the Columbia River Treaty to Serve Peoples and Places of the Columbia River," American Indian Studies Association, Tempe, AZ February 2016
- Discussant, "Native American Women in Documents: A Working Roundtable Discussion," American Society for Ethnohistory Conference, Las Vegas, NV November 2015

- “Improving the Research Experience: A Workshop for Graduate Students in Western American History,” Western History Association Meeting, Portland, OR October 2015
- “The Graduation Threshold: Bridging the Gap from Graduation to Employment,” Western History Association Meeting, Portland, OR October 2015
- “Re-framing the Narrative or, How Plateau Tribes Put U.S. Federal Indian Policies on Display at the Northwest Indian Congress,” Western History Association Meeting, Newport Beach, CA October 2014
- “Native American Studies in the Homeland: Gonzaga, the Jesuits, and Columbia Plateau Communities,” Christ and Cascadia Conference, Seattle, WA September 2014
- “The 1925 Northwest Indian Congress as Cultural and Political Exchange,” American Historical Association-Pacific Coast Branch Meeting, Portland, OR August 2014
- Co-Chair and Participant, “Directors of Native American Studies/American Indian Studies/Indigenous Studies Roundtable,” Native American and Indigenous Studies Association Conference, Austin, TX May 2014
- “Columbia Plateau Tribes and United State Citizenship in the 1920’s,” Pacific Northwest History Conference, Vancouver, WA April 2014
- “Enriching Public History through Tribal and University Partnerships,” National Council on Public History Conference, Monterey, CA March 2014
- Comment, “Marketing Place, Maintaining Sovereignty: Native Economic & Political Strategies,” Western History Association Meeting, Tucson, AZ October 2013
- “Beyond ‘I Will Fight No More Forever’: Chief Joseph and the Colville Tribes,” Western History Association Meeting, Denver, CO October 2012
- Chair/Panelist, “Serving Many Lodges: Public Discourse on Native American Topics,” National Council on Public History Conference, Pensacola, FL April 2011
- “The Colville Tribes: From Many into One and Back Again?” Western History Association Meeting, Lake Tahoe, NV October 2010
- Panelist, “Writing Gender Sin Fronteras” Western History Association Conference, St. Louis, MO October 2006

Selected Professional Memberships

- Western History Association
- National Council on Public History
- American Historical Association

Education

PhD in History, Arizona State University

BS in History, Oregon State University

Enrolled member, Lakes Band, Colville Confederated Tribes