

Gonzaga University Summer Session
Request for Overload Authorization Form

Undergraduates may register for up to 14 credits during Summer Session. Those in good academic standing may request permission to register for more than 14 credits by obtaining approval signatures from your advisor and from the dean of the college/school of your major, then returning the form to the Registrar's Office.

If permission is granted, you will be notified and granted access to register for the overload. Corresponding tuition charges will be added to your student account.
