

CLEP, Proficiency, and Proctored Exams

Gonzaga University Graduate School of Business

CLEP Exams

The College Level Examination Program (CLEP) allows MBA, MAcc, & MSTax students to fulfill prerequisites for graduate level courses by demonstrating proficiency on CLEP exams. Students study independently and schedule their exams through Gonzaga or another testing center. If you do not pass a CLEP exam, you must wait 3 months to retake it.

Proficiency Exams

Proficiency exams are designed specifically for Gonzaga students to satisfy MBA, MAcc & MSTax prerequisites and will not act as transfer credits to other universities. These exams may only be attempted once. Students who do not pass will be required to complete the applicable prerequisite courses.

CLEP Exam Subjects	Passing Score
Principles of Management	50/72%
Principles of Marketing	50/72%
Introductory Business Law	50/72%
