Office of a Pedagogy of Hope through Research and Practice

Project Proposal

Thank you for your interest in pursuing a project in partnership with the Office of a Pedagogy of Hope. To help us develop a sense for your vision, please address the following topics and questions. Your thorough answers will help us carefully consider how we can best support your initiative. Completed forms may be submitted to Debbie Ramirez (ramirezd@gonzaga.edu) in the Dean's Office of the School of Education.

Pedagogy of Hope (definition):

A Pedagogy of Hope is an approach to education based on Paulo Freire's work, among others, that promotes an awareness of social reality through reflection and action (Freire 1970/1993). The goal of this approach is to encourage students, faculty, and community members to be active participants in transformational change that offers access and opportunity to all members of the educational community.

Objective and Mission

Please describe your project, including its intended outcome.

How does this objective reflect a Pedagogy of Hope? (Please see definition above.) If this project builds upon a previous or current initiative—or could lay a groundwork for future initiatives—please address this connection here.

How does this objective fit within the Gonzaga University mission? (Please see mission statement.)

Whom will this project benefit? (Please list all beneficiaries.)

Scope of Work

What practical help or support do you envision the Pedagogy of Hope office providing (e.g., research, organization, planning)? Please be as specific as possible.

What specific product or deliverable would you envision the Office of a Pedagogy of Hope delivering back to you as the result of our work on this project? (spreadsheet with data points, summary write-up, graphic organizer, event binder, etc.)

Facilitation Information

Does this project involve an event? If so, what is its date and time, audience, and location? If not, what is your project completion date? (You are welcome to give a rough timeframe if you prefer.)

Please describe the fiscal impact of this project. Do you already have funding secured? If not, what financial support will this project require?

Thank you for sharing your vision with us. We will be in touch with you shortly.
