

Pursuing Justice. Finding Solutions.

The Gonzaga Law Review is seeking articles for the second issue of Volume 53 to be published during the academic year, 2017-2018. Articles may have an academic or practical focus and should address topics related to the legal field.

Below are some general notes that apply to every submission:

- Gonzaga Law Review encourages the submission of unsolicited manuscripts.
- We regret that manuscripts cannot be returned.
- Gonzaga Law Review reserves the right to determine the final form in which the articles will be published.
- It is the policy of the Gonzaga Law Review to support and further the use of gender-neutral language.

Please see our submission guidelines, for our new policies regarding article submissions.

First name:

Last name:

E-mail:

Organization:

Article Title:

Abstract Summary:

E-mail this completed form and the article you intend to submit to gulr@gonzaga.edu.