

THE GONZAGA LAW DIFFERENCE

In a competitive market, employers want graduates who can contribute from their first day on the job. That's exactly what we prepare you to do. Our curriculum provides expert training in litigation and transactional law while developing the critical thinking and communication skills necessary to succeed. Our Jesuit values embrace service beyond self and a commitment to diversity. The end result is a degree that serves as the foundation for a long and successful career and a lifelong connection to a diverse group of leaders dedicated to creating a better world.

CULTURE

We value progress, community, and servant leadership. We equip service-minded graduates to make a real difference. We produce successful lawyers, judges, governors, senators, public servants, and CEOs. Your journey will begin similar to theirs: with a team of passionate professors and myriad opportunities for personal and professional growth.

WHAT WE VALUE

Jesuit Culture

Creativity, intelligence, and initiative—we educate the whole person.

Social Justice

We take the call to change the world seriously. Our Center for Civil & Human Rights reaffirms this commitment.

Hands-on Training

With five in-house clinics, annual competitions, and exclusive externships, we believe experience is the best teacher.

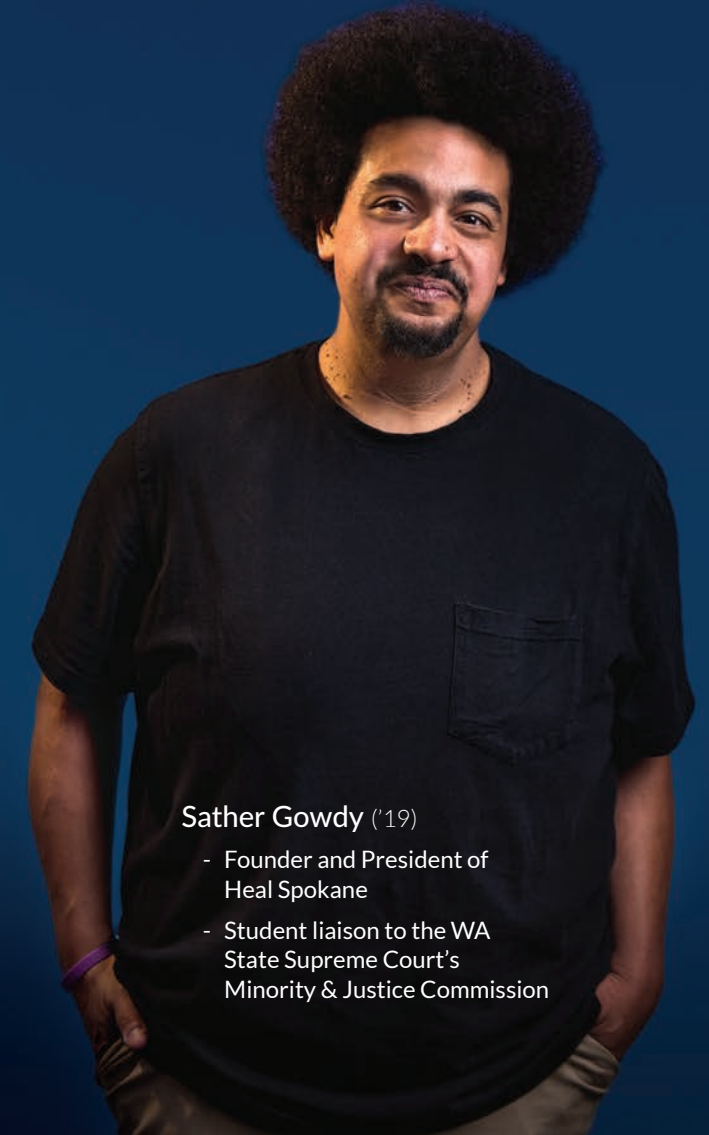

Student Mentoring

Robust and unlike any other, our mentoring program pairs 1Ls with upperclassmen, while local alumni mentor rising 2Ls.

Rebecca Smith ('20)

- Thomas More Scholar
- Community Action Chair, Women's Law Caucus
- Legal Fellow, International Criminal Court in the Hague & Center for Civil and Human Rights
- Student Representative, Equal Justice Works

Sather Gowdy ('19)

- Founder and President of Heal Spokane
- Student liaison to the WA State Supreme Court's Minority & Justice Commission

ACADEMICS

Learn in a classroom, courtroom, through an externship, or at a national competition. Study in the halls of our state-of-the-art facilities on a quiet, winter morning, or sip an espresso in the cafes of Florence, Italy during our Summer Law program. Wherever you learn, our classroom philosophy is simple: conduct a rigorous and thorough examination of the law. Read it, study it, analyze it, pull it apart, and piece it back together.

THOMAS MORE SCHOLARSHIP

100% Tuition. Limitless Opportunity.

Thomas More Scholars reflect the heart of Gonzaga Law's mission: social justice and service to others. When serving in this storied program, students receive full tuition, join an active community of Thomas More alumni, and engage with important, meaningful work during and after school. Recipients must demonstrate a commitment to public service and academic excellence.
