

2018-19 Faculty Reporting on Ten-Hour Public Service Requirement
Volunteer for Asian Society of International Law, Singapore to analyze and educate Asian approaches to international law and Nepalese Society of International Law on migration issues and spent time in educating on federalism within the Constitution of Nepal to the national, provincial, and local governments. I also helped a local community here in Spokane on immigration matters.
Volunteer ESL instruction for refugees through nonprofit organization.
Volunteer for a local nonprofit active in conservation and outdoor activities.
Submitted extensive comments on student privacy issues and other issues raised by the proposed Title IX regulations from the U.S. Department of Education concerning campus sexual misconduct. Awaiting the final regulations.
As part of the Law-Medicine Partnership, spoke to a joint group of law and medicine professionals and students about “Religious Discrimination, Reasonable Accommodations, Conscience Laws, and Public Accommodations Rights of Health Care Employees and Patients.” Discussed recent proposed changes by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services which would prioritize rights of conscience for health care employees over patient civil rights to access health care without regard to gender or sexual orientation.
Consulting pro bono on a higher education student disability discrimination case involving emotional support animals in dorms and accommodations for food allergy/intolerance in campus meal plans.
Volunteer with Washington Minority and Justice Commission and WSBA council on public defense.
Facilitated workshops for the Alternatives to Violence Project, which conducts intensive 18-hour experiential workshops in the community, in prisons, and in schools on what causes, de-escalates, and prevents violence.
Presented six volunteer CLE sessions, and most audiences were public defenders or legal services lawyers. I also volunteered more than 50 hours for several organizations that engage in law reform, legal education or legal assistance activities: (1) the Board of Governors and Access to Justice Committee of the Society of American Law Teachers, (2) the WSBA Committee on Professional Ethics, (3) the ACLU-WA Legal Committee, (4) the ABA Silver Gavel Awards for Media and the Arts Documentary Film Screening Committee, and (5) the Board of Advisors for the Center for Civil and Human Rights at Gonzaga Law.
Member of Junior League of Spokane board and volunteer legal assistance to Northwest Tortoise (a local tortoise rescue).
Pro bono legal advice
Serving people experiencing homelessness with The Solution is Hours and Women’s Hearth Family Law Clinic.
2 hours –Spokane River Clean up 2 hours – presentation to Long-Term Care Ombudsman Program 2 hours –2 nd Harvest Food Bank 2 hours - Union Gospel Mission

3 hours - Habitat for Humanity 5 hours – organized and held women’s clothing drive for Transitions 3 hours –SCRAPS 15 hours (entire year) – board member commitments for LLLT Board 20 hours (entire year) – board member commitments for Transitions Board 16 hours (entire year) – board member commitments for Saint George’s School Board 4 hours (entire year) – board member commitments for Center for Civil and Human Rights Board
Work with Shalom Ministries, an Affiliate of the Methodist Church that serves meals to the homeless.
Volunteer to coordinate blood drives.
Volunteer with Spokane Buddhist Temple
(i) formed and ran a corporation dedicated to writing amicus curiae briefs in commercial law cases; (ii) drafted two amicus curiae briefs; (iii) engaged in law reform activities, such as by reviewing and editing a draft commentary of the Permanent Editorial Board of the UCC and recommending changes to drafts of the Restatement of Consumer Contracts; and (iv) on behalf of the American College of Commercial Finance Lawyers (a non-profit organization), offered and provided assistance to junior scholars on matters relating to commercial law.
St. Mark’s Lutheran Church, ELCA’s “God’s Work, Our Hands” service ministry (feeding programs and environmental clean-up programs).
Volunteer with Meals on Wheels; Courthouse pro se assistance; and Women’s Hearth
Spokane Public Radio 120 hours; Weekly 1/2 hour film review show 2) Disability Rights WA 75 hours ; Chair — board of directors 3) Bridges Across Borders Southeast Asia Legal Education Initiative 100 hours Volunteer teaching and consulting in Myanmar Amigas de Corazon 25 hours Service trip to Guatemala; fundraising Peace and Justice Action League of Spokane 20 hours, General volunteer work and fundraising ABA Immigrant Justice Project 50 hours; Preparation and volunteer trip to San Diego - Mexico border University Legal Assistance 10 hours; Board member