Acknowledgments

Career & Professional Development (CPD) would like to express sincere appreciation to all of our colleagues and stakeholders who helped collect and compile this information. Special thanks to:

- Dr. Judi Biggs Garbuio, Vice President for Student Development, for providing feedback on content, layout, and design of this report.
- Christina Turner, Associate Director of Institutional Research, who assisted in securing graduate school information from the National Student Clearinghouse.
- Shelby Wells, Marketing & Event Specialist in CPD, who conceptualized and designed the materials to allow us to tell our First Destination Survey Report story.
- Katherine Brackmann, Recruiting & Research Specialist in CPD, who scrubbed and edited data, and kept the data collection process on target with our December 31, 2017 deadline.
- Marnie Rorholm, Office Manager in the Military Science program, for verifying military First Destination Survey outcomes.
- Molly Ayers, Director in the Center for Community Engagement, for providing data related to graduates in volunteer service.
- Administrators, academic deans, academic department chairs, faculty and staff for providing information related to the first destinations of our graduates.
- The entire CPD team for the time spent to collect data through research and telephone surveys.

| 1,981 | Total undergraduate and graduate students |
| 1,265 | Total undergraduate students |
| 716  | Total graduate students |
The Knowledge Rate of 82% exceeds the NACE suggested Knowledge Rate of 65% by 17 percentage points and was obtained through both graduating student responses and staff research.

Data collection strategies included:

- Surveying students in person at events and programs, and in classrooms,
- Surveying students via an online survey tool,
- Surveying students via telephone after graduation,
- Employing the assistance of colleges, schools, departments, faculty, staff and administrators to obtain and/or verify first destination data,
- Obtaining student information from a data sourcing company, HEPdata,
- Conducting online research on social media sites and organizational web pages, and,
- Obtaining graduate school attendance information from the National Student Clearinghouse (StudentTracker) database.

The 95% Outcomes Success Rate was obtained by combining employment (full and part-time), continuing education, volunteer service, and military service.

Students who were not seeking employment or to continue their education (1%) were also included as outcomes successes.

5% of graduating students were still seeking employment or graduate school admission on December 31, 2017. At this time, the U.S. national unemployment rate was 4.1%. This places Gonzaga University graduates within 1.0 percentage point of the national unemployment rate.

According to NACE, the Outcomes Success Rate for the undergraduate class of 2016 was 81% (a one percent decline from 2015).

Using the 2016 Outcomes Success Rate of 81% as a baseline for the 2017 graduating class, Gonzaga University undergraduates achieved a 12% higher (93%) outcomes success rate than the national average.

FDS Report includes employment information for some respondents that were employed in the same role prior to starting their education.

Salary calculations are based on hourly and annual wage information; monthly volunteer stipends are not included.

Top cities are reported as “Metropolitan Statistical Areas,” following standards set by the U.S. Census Bureau.

Spokane remains the top first destination city and Washington remains the top first destination state. The top five employers/organizations of Zags are Gonzaga University, Providence Health & Services/Swedish, U.S. Military, Boeing, AmeriCorps (tie), and KPMG LLP(tie). The average salary for both undergraduates and graduates is $59,710.

The following graphs and tables provide outcomes success data for undergraduate and graduates by college or school. When available, CPD has also provided information on top geographic locations (city and state), top employers/organizations and average salaries.

CLARE
AMERICORPS VOLUNTEER
NEIGHBORCARE HEALTH

“I am about halfway through my service term, and already have gained so much experience and knowledge. I feel like I am putting into action so much of what I learned throughout college. I initially applied to this position because of the Jesuit commitment to service and social justice that was so present at Gonzaga. This position has helped guide me to my next steps professionally, while also widening my worldview and I will leave with a stronger commitment to service and social justice.”

“In teaching its students about justice, global citizenship, service, and a preferential right for the poor and vulnerable, Gonzaga teaches us how to love and care for one another in an empowering, invigorating, community-building way. And that brings me to where I am now, living and learning in a community of people very different from me, trying my best every day to live with boundless joy and expansive hospitality. My favorite part of my job is seeing the joy on my students’ faces when they enjoy learning. It’s pretty magical to see that moment when something clicks for a student.”

RICHARD
BUSINESS CAREER FOUNDATION PROGRAM
BOEING

“I interned at Boeing the summer before my senior year as a project management intern. When going through your internship they start talking about full-time conversion and different rotational programs. I applied and was accepted to the Business Career Foundation Program, which is a leadership development program that focuses on high potential talent and what they imagine as the next leaders of the company. It is broken down into six, four-month rotations and includes several professional development opportunities as well.”

“On my first day of teaching this quarter, I wanted to try something different. I didn’t foster the kind of connection I wanted with my previous class, and I knew exactly how to change that moving forward: storytelling. We did a miniature storytelling exercise, sharing parts of our lives with one another that we hadn’t known before. My students left class not as strangers that day, but instead as people who held a special, intricate little piece of another person...If one student walks way from my class feeling as though they leaned something about themselves through a story, then I’ve done all I could hope to do as a teacher.”

“Gonzaga provided me with opportunities to be in different types of classrooms and work with different populations that affirmed my desire to be in this field. I felt prepared to do my job but I also love the learning opportunities I have been presented this year through professional development and being in my own classroom for the first time. It has been awesome and a great supplement to what I had already been taught at Gonzaga.”

“Through my nursing classes at Gonzaga I had several opportunities to work with underrepresented populations. For example, I worked at a substance abuse center and had other opportunities to provide care to the most vulnerable populations within the Spokane community. Those experiences helped me appreciate the different populations of people I am currently helping. Even after all the hard days I am able to come home and reflect about what I am doing and all the people my work is impacting.”

“I love the culture of Amazon. It is a culture based on community, which I think is nice because, coming from a place like Gonzaga, it has a lot of similarities. It’s not like I am just coming here to work, I have relationships with my co-workers, am involved in organizations within Amazon, and have even done service with my team. It feels more like a lifestyle working here rather than just a job.”
