Gonzaga University Campus Resources Matrix

This tool has been developed to help faculty and staff easily identify offices on campus where you can refer a student, based on their specific concern. If you're not sure where to start, we recommend the Center for Cura Personalis. They can help connect the student to the right place, based on the situation.

Campus Resources to Assist You Your Student's Concern	Academic Advising & Assistance	Career & Professional Development	Center for Cura Personalis	Disability Access	Health & Counseling. Services	Housing & Residence Life	Learning Strategies	Lincoln LGBTQ+ Resource Center	Office for Equity and Inclusion	Student Financial Services	Title IX in the Office for Equity and Inclusion	Transfer, Veteran, & Returning Adult Services	Unity Multicultural Education Center (UMEC)	University Ministry (Umin)
Academics	•				_		•							-
Alcohol, Marijuana, & Drug Use			•		•									•
Anxiety			•		•									•
Career Guidance	_	•
Choosing a Major	•	•												•
Course Schedules / Courseload	•						•
Cultural Identity			•		•			•					•
Dating & Relationship Violence			•		•			•			•			•
Depression and Suicide			•		•									•
Disabilities or Accommodations				•
Faith & Spirituality														•
Family Concerns			•		•			•				•	•	•
Finances										•
First Generation			•		•							•	•	•
Harassment or Discrimination			•		•			•	•		•		•
Helping a Friend			•		•	•		•			•	•	•	•
Illness or Injury					•
Loneliness			•		•	•		•				•	•	•
Nutrition			•		•
Relationships			•		•	•		•			•	•	•	•
Roommates			•		•	•								•
Sexual Misconduct / Sexual Assault			•		•			•			•			•
Sexual Orientation			•		•			•					•	•
Sleep			•		•
Study Skills							•
Test Anxiety							•
Time Management			•				•							•
Transitions	•	•	•		•	•	•	•				•	•	•
Traumatic Experiences			•		•						•			•
Underrepresented Student Needs			•		•			•				•	•	•
Veteran's Issues												•		