Outcomes/Goals for all students completing their History Courses

1. Students participating in the History curriculum will develop the ability to explain and interpret historical change and continuity in a variety of geographic and temporal contexts.

2. Students will analyze both primary documents and secondary sources and then demonstrate the ability to communicate effectively on historical and contemporary issues.

3. Students will demonstrate the ability to apply historical lessons to contemporary and future challenges and opportunities.