Outcomes goals for the Major in Spanish and French:

* ACTFL refers to the “American Council on the Teaching Foreign Languages” Proficiency Guidelines

- To communicate orally entirely in target language in both everyday and professional/academic settings with a high degree of phonetic, syntactic and semantic accuracy (ACTFL advanced level).

- To comprehend complex information provided orally at the normal conversational tempo of a native speaker (ACTFL advanced level).

- To write with proficiency to contrast, criticize, analyze, defend opinions, and advance and support a thesis (ACTFL advanced level).

- To comprehend and interpret challenging and diverse reading material in the target language (ACTFL advanced level).

- To demonstrate insightful and complex understanding of the target language culture(s) and function comfortably in a wide range of social situations in the target language environment(s).