Your Financial Aid Application was selected for review in a process called verification. The law says that before disbursing federal aid, we must have you verify the information you reported on your FAFSA. Gonzaga’s financial aid office will compare your FAFSA with the information on this form and any other required documents. If there are differences, your FAFSA may need to be corrected.

If verification results in changes to your financial aid award, you will be notified at your ZagMail account.

Please complete this form in its entirety, paying close attention to the instructions for each section.

Child Support Paid

Your FAFSA indicates a member of your household as reported on the FAFSA (student, parent, stepparent or the student’s spouse) paid child support in 2013. List below the names of the persons who paid the child support, the names of the persons to whom the child support was paid, the names of the children for whom the child support was paid, and the total annual amount of child support that was paid in 2013 for each child. If more space is needed, provide a separate page that includes the student’s name and ID number at the top.

Note: If we have reason to believe that the information regarding child support paid is not accurate, we may require additional documentation, such as:
- A copy of the separation agreement or divorce decree that shows the amount of child support to be provided;
- A statement from the individual receiving the child support certifying the amount of child support received; or
- Copies of the child support payment checks or money order receipts.
