Visa Information

Basic Visa Information:

Website for Americans Traveling Abroad

- Provides specific country, safety, and visa information:
  http://travel.state.gov/visa/americans/americans_1252.html

Africa

South Africa

Important Information:

- For paid internships, you must obtain a working permit. However, these are very difficult to acquire, particularly for internships.
- For unpaid internships, all that is needed is a tourist visa, which is only good for 90 days. These visas can be extended only once, for an additional 90 days.

Required Documents and Processes:

☐ For a Study Visa (for study abroad-type programs):
  - Completed application form (BI-1738) signed by applicant
  - Passport: Must have been issued less than 10 years ago, be valid for at least 30 days after your return to the US
  - Photographs: Two current 2x2 inch passport-type photographs
  - Notarized copy of birth certificate
  - Proof of medical report (physical test by your physician)
  - Radiological report (chest X-Ray) or skin TB test
  - Police clearance certificate (criminal background check) from all countries the applicant has lived in for one year or longer since age 18.
  - Proof of health coverage (health insurance)
  - Roundtrip flight itinerary
  - An official letter from the institution in South Africa confirming acceptance and duration of the course
  - An official letter of enrollment from the institution of learning concerned in the U.S. if applicable.
  - Proof of financial means in the form of bank statement or notarized letter from the parents stating the financial responsibility.
• In case of a minor, a notarized letter of consent from the parent is required.
• Proof of U.S. legal status (I-20 for F1 visa holders, copy of green card, etc.).
• Non-refundable fee of $72.00 money order for processing
• $16.00 money order for overnight mailing
• A repatriation deposit of $1,500.00 money order in case of applicants travelling on one way ticket
• Processing time is 5 business days, during peak season it may take up to 10 business days.

☐ For an Tourist Visa:
• Valid passport
• Internship agreement
• Valid ticket for your return flight
• Proof of funds (bank statement which shows at least $1400 on your bank account)
• A letter of your parents ensuring monthly financial support
• Letter of motivation (reasons for your stay in South Africa)
• Fee of 425 Rand (equivalent to approximately $56)
• Letter of good cause (only if application for extension is belated)
• Application Form BI 1739

Asia

China

Required Documents and Processes:

☐ Passport: Must have been issued less than 10 years ago, be valid for at least six months from the date of intended arrival in China and have at least two blank pages left.
☐ A Chinese visa application form fully completed, signed and include contact information and hotel name and address.
☐ If you are applying to work or study in China, if someone else travelling with you shares the same passport, or if you are applying for a visa while living in a country or territory other than the country of your current nationality, you should fill out the Supplementary Visa Application Form(Form V.2011B).
☐ Photograph: One current 2x2 inch passport-type photograph
☐ A business letter from the applicant’s U.S. company addressed to Consulate of China. The letter must state the following information:
  • The precise purpose and description of the applicant’s assignment in China
  • Financial responsibility from the company
  • Dates of stay and hotel address, and if staying in various hotels provide a copy of each reservation
  • Name and address of organization to be visited
- Must be signed by a company official

☐ An official invitation letter from the Chinese company being visited. The invitation letter may be faxed (for multiple entry business visas applicants only).

☐ A payment to Consulate of China. Must be money order or cash; personal and business/company checks are not accepted. Cost is $140 for a four day processing time.

☐ Service Fee is $50 per passport ($100 for 24-hour rush processing). Must be cash, money order or certified check; no personal checks are accepted.

☐ You are required to cover the cost of returning your passport with visa. Please include postage payment or provide a self-addressed paid envelope for the delivery service desired (FedEx, UPS, DHL, etc). Returning your package via the U.S. Postal Service is only acceptable with a tracking number.

India

Important Information:

- Employment visas need to be obtained by anyone traveling for internships, employment, or volunteer work with a Non-Governmental Organization (NGO).
- Employment visas are valid for one year, regardless of the duration of the internship.

Required Documents and Processes:

☐ India Visa Application Form

☐ Digital image of visa photo and signature: A digital image of the first page of your visa application containing your visa photo and signature is required

☐ Travisa Order Form

☐ Photograph: One current 2x2 inch passport-type photograph

☐ Signature: The India Visa application has 2 places for signature. The following sections must be signed correctly:
  - Page 1: Applicants must sign COMPLETELY inside the box on Page 1 below their picture. Minors who cannot write their name can use a thumbprint in black ink instead. If any part of the signature or thumbprint is outside of the box, the application will be rejected.
  - Page 2: At the bottom of Page 2, the applicant must sign. If applicant is a minor, both parents or legal guardians must sign.

☐ Passport: Passport must have a minimum validity of six months from the date of application with at least two blank visa pages.

☐ Proof of Address: Applicants must submit a photocopy with proof of residence/address that matches the present address on the visa application exactly. Photocopy of state issued ID (Driver License or ID), major utility bill (Water, Gas, Electric, Sewage) or a copy of a valid/current lease containing both the landlord and tenant signatures must be submitted. The following items are not accepted: cell phone bill, credit card statement or bank statement. The address cannot include a P.O. box. For College/University students living on-campus in university housing/dormitories, a letter from your institution on the institution's letterhead explaining the exact address that you presently reside in will suffice.

☐ Appointment Letter: An employment appointment letter that contains the salary information. The salary must be at least $25,000 USD per year.
☐ Contract Letter: An employment contract letter. The letter must be detailed and comprehensive.
☐ Résumé
☐ Tax Liability Letter: A tax liability letter from the company in India which must certify that the Indian company will take responsibility for paying taxes on behalf of the applicant.
☐ Employee Details Form: One copy of the Employee Details Form: https://www.indian-visa.com/docs/EmploymentVisaForm.doc ☐ Protected/Restricted Area Permit: Applicants planning to travel in the following areas in India will need to apply for a special protected / restricted area permit: Arunachal Pradesh, Parts of Himachal Pradesh, Parts of Jammu and Kashmir, Manipur, Mizoram, Nagaland, Parts of Rajasthan, Sikkim and Parts of Uttarakhand.
☐ Justification Letter: A letter from the employer in India certifying that applicant is a skilled and qualified professional, technical expert, senior executive or in a managerial position.
☐ Sponsor Letter from Organization in India: Those intending to volunteer, work with charities or non-profit organizations must include a letter from the sponsoring organization in India on letterhead indicating the nature and the duration of the visit and where it will take place. The letter should be signed by an authorized person at the organization.
☐ For minors only:
  • Copy of Birth Certificate
  • Copies of parents’ passports

Japan

Important Information:

- US citizens do not need a visa to visit Japan if they are staying for less than 90 days. To stay for a time period longer than 90 days, one must leave Japan and then re-enter. This will allow another 90 day visit. For a consecutive trip of greater than 90 days, a visa is required.
Required Documents and Processes:

- A valid and signed passport with at least six months valid from the date of intended arrival in Japan and having at least two blank pages left
- Single visa application form
- Photograph: One current 2x2 inch passport-type photograph
- Certificate of Eligibility, which is issued by the Immigration Bureau, Ministry of Justice in Japan. Your employer or sponsor needs to apply for this on your behalf.

Australia and Oceania Region

Australia

Important Information:

- Visa Types:
  - Working Holiday Visa: This is valid for one year; however, once you have procured an internship, the visa is valid for just six months from the time of the internship start date. In order to stay for more than six months, another internship must be procured.
  - Occupational Trainee Visa: This visa requires you to be sponsored by the Australian company at which you are doing your internship, and is valid for up to two years, however it is subject to the length of the training program. The purpose of this visa is to allow people from outside Australia to improve their occupational skills through training with an Australian organization or government agency. People may receive this visa if the proposed occupational training is one of the following:
    - Training or practical experience in the workplace required for the person to obtain registration for employment in their occupation in Australia or in their home country.
    - A structured workplace training program to enhance the person’s existing skills in an eligible occupation.
    - Structured workplace training to enhance the person’s skills and promote capacity building overseas.

Required Documents and Processes:

- For a Working Holiday Visa:
  - Letter from your employer
  - Photographs: Three current 2x2 inch passport-type photographs
  - Passport
• Hold a return ticket, or possess sufficient funds to purchase such a ticket
• Not bring children with you
• Have a minimum of $5000 available funds
• Meet health requirements
• This visa is only issued one time per person

☐ For an Occupational Trainee Visa:
• Have been recognized by a sponsor, have made a request for a sponsor, or have made a request to become sponsored at the same time the company begins the appointment’s procedure.
• A certified copy of birth certificates for yourself and for each secondary applicant included on the application. The birth certificate must list the names of the parents of each dependent child.
• Photograph: One current 2x2 inch passport-type photograph
• Copies of the page(s) in your current passport that contain your photo, personal details and the issue/expiry details of the passport.
• Evidence of your financial capacity to support yourself and all accompanying secondary applicants during your stay in Australia. Evidence may include: bank statements or a letter from your financial institution stating your financial position.
• ID Card
• Insurance Certificate
• Evidence with your visa application that you have adequate health insurance for the duration of your stay in Australia. Evidence of insurance may be:
  • A certification letter from your health insurer or broker
  • Evidence that you have enrolled with Medicare if your country has a reciprocal health arrangement with Australia
  • A health insurance standard template letter completed by your insurance provider.
• Criminal background check (for certain types of jobs)
• The visa application costs approximately $325 and the employer sponsor must pay $175 for the Nomination Application and $430 for the Sponsorship Application.

New-Zealand

_Important Information:_

- Finding internships in New Zealand can be difficult.
New Zealand has very strict health requirements for foreign visitors. They want to make sure that people who enter New Zealand are able to undertake the work or study for which they have been granted entry. Generally, they will not approve the entry of people to New Zealand if they have:

- Active pulmonary tuberculosis (TB).
- A relatively high probability of needing publicly funded health services during their stay in New Zealand, including, but not limited to:
  - hospitalization
  - residential care
  - high-cost pharmaceuticals
  - high-cost disability services

Visa Types:

- Work Visa: A work visa allows you to work in New Zealand for a limited amount of time. You can apply for a work visa before travelling to New Zealand or once you are already in New Zealand. A work visa granted offshore will allow you to travel to the New Zealand border. When you arrive, an immigration officer will check that you meet all the conditions of your visa to be granted entry permission to work in New Zealand. Whether you apply onshore or offshore, your work visa may include travel conditions allowing a single entry (valid for one journey) or multiple entries (valid for more than one journey). A work visa may be endorsed in your passport or may be granted electronically, in which case you need to have and keep a printed copy.
- Working Holiday Visa: This is valid for one year; however, once you have procured an internship, the visa is valid for just 6 months from the time of the internship start date. In order to stay for more than 6 months, another internship must be procured.

Required Documents and Processes:

- For a Working Holiday Visa:
  - Apply online to obtain an electronic visa:
  - Usually be permanently living in the United States of America – this means you can be temporarily visiting another country when you lodge your application
  - Passport: Must have been issued less than 10 years ago, and be valid for at least three months after your planned departure from New Zealand.
  - Be at least 18 and not more than 30 years old.
  - Not bring children with you.
• Hold a return ticket, or sufficient funds to purchase such a ticket. You are required to hold sufficient funds for the duration of your visit and for the purchase of an outward ticket from New Zealand. Such evidence may be requested on arrival at the border.
• Have a minimum of $3,390 in available funds to meet your living costs during your visit
• Meet health and character requirements
• Hold medical and comprehensive hospitalization insurance for the length of your stay
• Be coming to New Zealand to holiday, with work or study being secondary intentions for your visit.
• Not have been approved a visa under a Working Holiday Visa before.

☐ For an Work Visa:
• Print and complete the form Work Visa Application (INZ 1015). You can use the Work Visa Guide (INZ 1016) to help you apply
• Pay the visa fee (around $270)
• Passport: Must have been issued less than 10 years ago and be valid for at least three months after your planned departure from New Zealand.
• Photographs: Two current 2x2 inch passport-type photographs
• You must provide evidence that you have the support of your educational institution, and an offer of work from a New Zealand education institution or employer.
• If you stay more than six months and less than a year, you must provide a completed X-Ray Certificate for Temporary Entry (INZ 1096) PDF.
• If you stay more than one year, you must provide a completed Medical and Chest X-ray Certificate (INZ 1007) PDF.

England
Important Information:

- There are several names for internships in England and the United Kingdom. A few of the more common are:
  - Internship placement: For a six-twelve months’ internship.
  - Sandwich placement: For an 12 months’ internship
  - Work Placement: An internship

Required Documents and Processes:

- Visa Application Form:
  http://www.ukba.homeoffice.gov.uk/sitecontent/applicationforms/visas/vaf1d.pdf
- Photograph: One current 2x2 inch passport-type photograph
- A current and valid travel document or passport.
- Bank Statements or bank books
- Details of accommodation and return travel bookings (hotel booking, air plane tickets, etc.).
- Evidence of any English language ability or qualifications (for example, IELTS, TOEFL or PTE Academic)
- Evidence of your current employment or studies. This could include:
  - A letter from your employer on company headed paper, detailing your salary and the length of your employment, confirming that you have been given time off work and stating whether this time off is paid or unpaid. You could also consider submitting further documents which might support an employment letter, such as pay slips or tax returns. If you have recently entered new employment, you could consider providing details of your previous employment and salary history.
  - A letter from your education provider on headed paper, confirming your enrollment and leave of absence.
  - Business registration documents
- Tuberculosis (TB) testing (where applicable), only for student visitors studying for longer than 6 months

Schengen Area

Important Information:

- A short stay in the Schengen area is defined as either a stay of less than 90 days or a succession of stays during a period of 6 months that have an accumulate duration less than 90 days. Reason for a short stay must be business or tourism. US citizens do not need a visa to enter the Schengen Area for a short stay.

- A long stay in the Schengen area is defined as a duration of more than 90 days. US citizens do need a visa to enter the Schengen Area for a long stay.
If you are traveling for reasons other than business or tourism (such as employment, study, internship, etc.), you may need to obtain a visa before you leave the U.S. depending on the host country and port of entry to the Schengen Zone. Check with the Embassy or Consulate of the country or countries to which you are traveling for their specific requirements. The State Department’s Foreign Embassy website page contains the most updated list.

Required Documents and Processes:

- Original passport or travel document (plus one copy of the identity pages). Your passport must have been issued less than 10 years ago, be valid for at least three months after your return to the US and have at least 2 blank visas pages left.
- Processing fees: A short stay visa if the purpose of the visit is not business or tourism is $74 and a long stay visa is $122. Visa fees will not be refunded if the visa application is denied.
- One application form filled out completely and signed by the applicant
- One ID picture attached to the application form
- A valid U.S. permanent residence card ("green card") or a valid US visa with valid I-94 / valid I-20 + 1 photocopy, or an Advance Parole document. They do NOT accept applications from B1/B2 visa holders. They must apply in their country of residence.
- If the country of final destination is not the applicant’s country of citizenship, please submit a valid visa, a resident permit, a work permit or any other document showing that the applicant is allowed to enter or reside in such country.
- Proof of socio-professional status (need one of the following):
  - Letter of employment in the U.S confirming your salary, hire date, position, dates of vacation, and your last two pay-stubs. If you are self-employed, you also need your business registration.
  - Letter from your school or university confirming your enrollment status, attendance and expected graduation date
- Proof of financial means (your or your parents'/guardians’ last two bank statements)
- Your travel itinerary: you MUST BOOK your airline ticket but do not purchase until the visa has been approved.
- Proof of medical coverage abroad: a letter from your insurance company stating that you are covered abroad or a travel insurance to be purchased from a travel agency (minimum amount of $50,000)
- Proof of accommodation (need one of the following):
  - Confirmed hotel reservations
  - Letter from your travel agent stating that you are part of a tour
  - If you are staying with friends or family, a letter written by your host-family
  - For a business trip: please also provide a letter from your employer in the US or from your host company in the Schengen Area stating that you will be there on behalf of the company, giving the name and address of the contact person(s) in the Schengen Area and guaranteeing full responsibility for expenses, lodging, and return to the United States.

☐ If the applicant is under 18 years old and traveling without his/her parents, required documents include:

- Notarized copy of birth certificate
- Notarized authorization from both parents allowing their child to travel to France or from the parent exercising full custody of the child according to the divorce decree.
- If you are divorced: certified copy of divorce decree stating that you have full custody of the child(ren).

☐ A self-addressed prepaid EXPRESS MAIL envelope from the US POST OFFICE ONLY - NO FEDEX / UPS / AIRBORNE EXPRESS accepted. You may use one envelope per family if you buy ‘flat rate’

South America

Brazil

Important Information:

- A yellow fever vaccination is recommended for travelers who plan to visit the following Brazilian states: Acre, Amazonas, Rondonia, Roraima, Amapá, Pará, Tocantins, Mato Grosso, Mato Grosso do Sul, Goiás, Distrito Federal, Maranhão and Minas Gerais, in addition to the south of Piauí, the west and south of Bahia, the north of Espírito Santo, the northwest of São Paulo and the west of the states of Paraná, Santa Catarina and Rio Grande do Sul. Also keep in mind that the vaccine should be taken at least 10 days prior to departure.
- A yellow fever vaccination certificate is compulsory for visitors arriving from infected areas.
- All travelers must be in possession of onward or return tickets and sufficient funds to cover their stay.
Required Documents and Processes:

- A visa (for American citizens traveling to Brazil)
  - Visa fee must be paid with U.S. Post Office Money Order only, made out to the Consulate General of Brazil (bring the money order to the Consulate with your other documents). Cash, cards and non-USPS money orders are not accepted. Different fees related to the same application or to the same family or group can be combined in a single money order.
  - The visa fee is $100. There is also a processing fee of $150 that will be charged to all US passport holders in reciprocity for an identical fee paid by Brazilian citizens who apply for a Visa to the US;
  - If you cannot come to the Consulate in person, the application can be submitted by a third party, such as a friend, a relative or a visa agency. An additional absentee fee of $20 is charged if you do not bring your application in person.
  - It takes the Consulate at least 5 business days to issue a visa. Longer periods may apply, especially in the high season. There are no rush or emergency fees.
  - Long-duration visas (valid for 5 or 10 years, for instance) are valid from the day they are issued. Short-duration visas (valid for 30 or 90 days, for example) are valid from the date of first entry into Brazil. All visa holders, regardless of nationality or visa validity date, may only stay in Brazil for up to 90 days a year, unless otherwise noted on the visa.
- Visa applications are received at the Consulate every business day from 10 a.m. to noon, on a first-come, first-served basis.
- Passport: Must have been issued less than 10 years ago, be valid for at least six months from the date of intended arrival in Brazil and have at least one blank visa page left.
- A copy of a round-trip ticket or a booked itinerary showing travel to and from Brazil, confirming purchase of the ticket and passenger's name, itinerary, flight number and arrival/departure dates
- The original and a copy of the US Alien Resident Card for foreign residents in the US and/or a valid visa or document to return from Brazil to the US or to another country
- Photograph: One current 2x2 inch passport-type photograph
- FBI clearance issued within the last 3 months, certifying absence of criminal record, legalized by the Consulate. $20.00 fee will be charged (please note that it may take up to 12 weeks for the FBI to issue the clearance)
- Proof of financial capability during stay in Brazil (i.e. certified copy of bank or credit card statement, copy of savings certificate, letter from the employer or institution that granted a scholarship, etc.). The Consulate will then legalize the signature of the notary public. $20.00 fee will be charged
- When traveling for business (such as an internship), an affidavit from the sponsoring Brazilian company or institution containing specific information on the activity to be performed, location and duration of the engagement is required. The letter must be legalized by a notary public in Brazil.

☐ Proof of residence within the consular jurisdiction for the past 12 months (i.e., letter from the employer/educational institution notarized, utility bill or voter's registration).
