Internship opportunities through Gonzaga’s Sponsored Study Abroad programs
Updated 7/2013

Oceania
- Program type -- This is a stand-alone internship program where students will not be completing other courses.
- GlobaLinks also offers internships in Chile, China, Hong Kong, & Spain
- Internships in various fields -- IT, Environmental, Tourism, Film/Media, Engineering, Teaching, Business, Communication, Veterinary Science, Viticulture (Wine-making)/Agriculture, Architecture, Professional Sports
- Cost ranges from $4,780 (6 weeks – 4 credits) to $6,015 (10 weeks – 6 credits)
- Internships usually meet for 32 hours per week, with one week day off
- 3 GU students have already applied to these programs for Spring 2014

A Gonzaga only internship program for 8 weeks (May 26 – July 25, 2014) in Australia would cost roughly $5,000 - $5,500 and a little less in New Zealand.
- The estimated fee includes all of our standard services like pre-departure advising, placement into an internship, personal brand tool box, 24/7 emergency support in-country, orientation program, cell phone, international health insurance, International Student ID Card, housing (apartment or homestay).
- The target would be to have 10 participants, but the program could run with less as long as the dates remain.

Latin America
- Intermediate to Advanced Spanish for placement.
- Program type -- ISA offers both a blended program with students completing courses and an internship at the same time and they have a stand-alone program where students will not be in courses.
- During semester programs, students usually work 5-10 hours per week if taking classes, but they can also participate in an internship as a stand-alone program.
- During each term, students can work 15-35 hours per week, for 4, 8, or 12 weeks, with the cost at $2,500, $3,500, or $4,500, which includes everything but the flight to Chile.
- Wide ranging placement types in Business, Education, Policy/Human Rights, Arts/Culture, Health Care, Communications, and more.

Asia
- Pune, India, provider The Alliance for Global Education – http://www.allianceglobaled.org/india/pune/contemporary-india#139
- Program type – A blended program where students are completing coursework and an internship together.
- A core requirement of the Contemporary India program involves one of three field research options: Internship, Directed Research, or Documentary Film.
- Alliance arranges placements within Pune’s most forward-thinking and well-respected NGOs, as well as multinational businesses, IT companies, research institutes and think tanks.
- Previous internship listing -- http://www.allianceglobaled.org/files/upload/pdf/pune_ints_menu_.pdf, many related to health care, women’s health, education, child welfare, social justice, other NGOs, business, media/communication
- Students should be prepared for a minimum workload of 155 hours over the course of the semester.
- Minimum gpa of a 3.0.
Europe

  Program type -- AIFS offers both a blended program with students completing courses and an internship together and they have a stand-alone program where students will not be in courses.

- Open to juniors and seniors with a minimum GPA of 2.75

- A one-semester unpaid internship in London for 6 credits plus a required Contemporary British Culture course for 3 credits and an additional 3-credit course

- Internships available in a wide range of companies and institutions in advertising, art and design, art history, event planning, fashion and beauty, finance and accounting, marketing/market research, media, journalism and publishing, Music, non-profit/NGO, politics and government, PR/communications, psychology and research, theater and theater management.

- Previous internship locations -- http://www.aifsabroad.com/england/londonintern/year1314/opportunities.asp

- As of July 22, 2013, we have three students planning to participate in this program in Spring 2014.

  Program type -- A blended program where students are completing coursework and an internship together.

  Hansard’s Statement: “As a Hansard Scholar your internship may be with a Member of Parliament (MP) in the House of Commons or a Peer in the House of Lords, writing speeches, carrying out research and attending parliamentary meetings; you may be in the parliamentary clerks’ office – with unprecedented access to the behind-the-scenes workings of Parliament; or with the BBC, researching articles and analysing the work of the Government; or with a campaign group, helping to devise and run media campaigns on key social and political issues. You may be based in the national headquarters of a political party or in one of the other many organisations and businesses which drive forward the policy agenda in the UK and beyond.”

- Hansard students access the resources at the London School of Economics

- Open to juniors and seniors with a minimum GPA of 3.0 and ideal for students studying Political Science, International Studies/Relations, History

  Program type -- A blended program where students are completing coursework and an internship together.

  Vesalius College offers for-credit and unpaid internship opportunities to juniors and seniors, with a minimum 2.75 GPA.

  Students should be prepared for a workload of 150 hours over the course of the semester.

  There will be a mid-term meeting with, and report given to, the supervising professor.

  Internships are most often with NGOs.

- Copenhagen, Denmark, provider DIS -- http://www.disabroad.org/study-abroad-students/career-resources/

  DIS offers various professional development workshops: International Career Night, Resume enhancement

  CareerGate -- http://discareergate.dk/ -- International Jobsite for DIS students to search for internships
Middle East
• Amman, Jordan, provider CIEE -- http://www.ciee.org/study-abroad/jordan/amman/arabic-language/
• Volunteering opportunities -- Previously, students have volunteered with NGOs, a women’s rights organization, educational institutions, and organizations in the for-profit sector. Volunteer service does not receive academic credit and is subject to availability.
• Program type – A blended program where students are completing coursework and an internship together.
• Minimum gpa of a 3.0.

Africa
• Legon, Ghana, provider CIEE -- http://www.ciee.org/study-abroad/ghana/legon/business-development-social-entrepreneurship/
• Program type – A blended program where students are completing coursework and an internship together.
• Students have at least 1.5 days per week for their internship/practicum
• Community Engagement and Rural Stay: Community engagement is an important component of this program. As part of the required Globalization and Development in Africa course, you will complete a community practicum that includes a minimum of 100 hours of practical on-site community engagement with a local host organization. CIEE has an established network of community partnerships with local NGOs, businesses schools, clinics, orphanages, and other local organizations. Projects may range from teaching English and math skills to young children or creating activities for children at an orphanage to working on training programs for girls and young women or helping officials with urban healthcare projects. The program schedule is structured to allow you significant blocks of time each week for your community engagement practicum.

• Stellenbosch, South Africa, provider AIFS -- http://www.aifsabroad.com/southafrica/stellenbosch/year1314/internship.asp
• AIFS Internship at Ardmore Ceramic Studio, Kwazulu Natal – a three week internship at the end of the Stellenbosch semester.
Service learning opportunities through Gonzaga’s Sponsored Study Abroad programs

Africa
• Stellenbosch, South Africa, provider AIFS -- http://www.aifsabroad.com/southafrica/stellenbosch/year1314/servicelearning.asp
  Program type – A blended program where students are completing coursework and an internship together.
  Learning for Sustainable Community Engagement Program (LSCE) object is to provide students with the opportunity to develop an understanding of the historical background and current issues impacting on community life and problems in South Africa. You will gain firsthand experience through service to a South African community while earning academic credits.
  Students opting to take this LSCE Program may earn a total of 15 credits, comprising a 9-credit mandatory Learning for Sustainable Community Engagement course plus one or two 3-credit modules.

Latin America
• Antiguo Cuscatlan, El Salvador (Casa de la Solidaride), provider Santa Clara University -- http://www.scu.edu/casa/solidaridad/program/
  Program type – A blended program where students are completing coursework and an internship together.
  The program has been so successful at transforming students’ lives because the program is rooted in the integration of four pillars: accompaniment with those who suffer most, rigorous academic study, simple community living and spirituality.

• Cordoba, Argentina, Casa Argentina, provider Loyola Marymount University -- http://www.jesuiteducationabroad.org/casa-argentina/
  Program type – A blended program where students are completing coursework and an internship together.
  Study abroad program directly reflecting the Jesuit values, "Casa Argentina" engages the Ignatian ideal of "well-educated solidarity" on all levels from the types of courses offered to the ways in which students are housed and engage with one another and with host country citizens.
  Casa Argentina program, you will spend a semester immersing yourself in the complex social, political, historical reality of Argentina, learning to accompany those living on the margins, and challenging yourself to grow and develop as a person for others.