ABOUT GONZAGA

Founded in 1887 along the Spokane River, Gonzaga is on the traditional lands of the Spokane Tribe. As a Jesuit, Catholic and humanistic university, it features nationally acclaimed academic programs, a commitment to serving others and a vibrant, community-centered campus life. Among many stops on a campus tour, you'll find:

- The John J. Hemmingson Center is a gathering place for students and the community.
- The Jundt Art Museum features rotating art exhibitions and works by students, faculty and global artists.
- The Myrtle Woldson Performing Arts Center hosts student theatrical, dance and musical productions, and performances by artists from across the country.
- The Bing Crosby House exhibits 200 artifacts from the crooner's life.
- The Rudolf Fitness Center offers a variety of sport courts, free weights and machines, an indoor running track and a swimming pool.
- McCarthy Athletic Center is home for the Gonzaga Bulldog basketball teams.
- The John and Joan Bollier Family Center for Integrated Science and Engineering is Gonzaga's newest state-of-the-art academic building.
- The Health Partnership building houses the UW School of Medicine and Gonzaga Health Sciences.

Spokane features endless outdoor recreational activities and attractions, without the big-city congestion.
