Hope lingers on

My mother, when love is gone,
in our darkest hour hope lingers on.

My father, when peace is gone,
in our darkest hour hope lingers on.

I will not hate, and I will not fear;
In our darkest hour, hope lingers here.

My sister, when equality’s gone,
in our darkest hours hope lingers on.

My brother, with tolerance gone,
in our darkest hour hope lingers on.

(Chorus)

My love, when honor is gone,
in our darkest hour hope lingers on.

My country, when justice is gone,
in our darkest hour hope lingers on.

(Chorus)

Media vita (sung in Latin)

Media vita in morte suumus:
Quem quaerimus ad lutorem nihi site domine?
Qui pro peccatis nostris,
Sancte Deus Sancte fortis,
Sancte misericor salvator.
Amare mortis ne tradas nos.
In te speraverunt patres nostris;
Speraverunt et liberasti eos.

In the midst of life, we are in death:
What helper do we seek except you, O Lord?
You who for our sins,
Holy God, holy and powerful,
O holy compassionate savior.
Do not give us over to the harshness of death.
In you, our ancestors placed their hopes;
They placed their hopes and you freed them.
Baptism

R. Nathaniel Dett (1882-1943)
Originally sung to Dett by his maternal grandmother, Harriet Washington

It’s down into the water, that we as converts go,
To serve our lord and master, in humbleness below;
I have receiv’d my bounty, and all my marital dress,
The ring of love and favor, the robe of righteousness.

‘Twas down in to the Jordan, the Savior went with John;
The Father spoke from heaven, “Behold my well lov’d Son!
Earth-born to save the sinner, salvations way to tell,
O’er sin and death the winner, and me he pleases well!”

Stand in that river

Moira Smiley

I went to my river, but my river was dry.
The dust rose up, to a darkened sky.
Tell me, where is hope?
Where do the waters run clear?
I do not know my way from here.

Come and stand in that river,
Current gentle and slow.
Send your troubles down water;
Down on that water flow.

When you stand in that river,
Angels sing in your head.
Secrets beyond ev’ry worry.
Dreams beyond ev’ry dread.

Tell me sister, brother,
Where does that river flow?
It flows down to the great water;
Where soon my people will go.

Come and stand in that river,
Current gentle and slow.
Send your troubles down water;
Down on that water flow.
Es redet und träumet die Jugend so viel, von Tanzen, Galoppen, Gelagen, auf einmal erreicht sie ein trügliches Ziel, da hört man sie seufzen und klag.

Bald schmerzet der Hals, und bald schmerzet die Brust, verschwunden ist alle die himmlische Lust, "Nur diesmal noch kehr' mir Gesundheit zurück!" so flehet vom Himmel der hoffende Blick!

Jungst wäht' auch ein Fräulein mit trüblem Gefühl, schon hätte ihr Stündlein geschlagen. Doch stand noch das Rädchen der Parze nicht still, nun schöner die Freuden ihr tagen.

Drum Freunde, erhebet den frohen Gesang, es lebe die teure Irene noch lang! Sie denke zwar oft an das falsche Geschick, doch trübe sich nimmer ihr heiterer Blick.

The young talk and dream so much, of dancing, galloping, and feasting; All at once they reach a treacherous goal, then they start to sign and complain.

Soon the throat hurts, and then the chest, gone is all the heavenly joy, “If only my health would return once more!” Thus the hopeful glance implores from heaven.

Lately, a girl in her sadness, thought that her last hour had chimed. But the wheel of fate did not stop, now more wonderful joys dawn on her.

Therefore friends, raise the joyous song, “Long live out dear Irene!” Although she often worries about destiny, may her cheerful view never darken.

We are...

For each child that's born a morning star rises and sings to the universe who we are.

We are our grandmothers’ prayers, we are our grandfathers’ dreamings, we are the breath of the ancestors, we are the spirit of God.

We are mothers of courage, fathers of time, Daughters of dust, sons of great visions. We are sisters of mercy, brothers of love, lovers of life and the builders of nations. We're seekers of truth, and keepers of faith, makers of peace, wisdom of ages.

We are one.
I sing, you sing

I sing you sing we all sing the new song.
I sing you sing the new song we all sing.
I sing you sing we all sing the new song.

Why sing another song
when I sing the one song to sing?

I met a melody today;
It didn’t ask if it could stay;
Now it even wants to share my bed.
You know at first it was OK,
But as it never goes away,
It drives me insane I almost wish I were dead.
I can’t get the melody out of my head.

I sing you sing we all sing the new song.
I sing you sing the new song we all sing.
I sing you sing we all sing the new song.
When I sing you sing along such a lovely song.

I would pay almost any price
To get a good piece of advice
How to leave this parasite behind.
You hear it once, you hear it twice
And like the snake in Paradise
It gets you first and then it conquers all humankind,
I can't get the melody out of my mind!

(Chorus)
America the beautiful

Shawn Kirchner (b. 1970)
Text by Katharine Lee Bates (1859-1929)
Adapted by Shawn Kirchner

O beautiful for spacious skies, for amber waves of grain,
For purple mountain majesties above the fruited plain!
America! America! God shed His grace on thee,
And crown thy good with brotherhood from sea to shining sea!

O beautiful that ancient feet beneath the countless stars,
Ten thousand years in beauty walked, through wilderness unmarred.
And fateful then, that sailing fleets a new world sought, and found,
And whose bright promise wrought a doom whose echoes yet resound.
America! America! May God forgive thy vying strains.
Thy pride yet tame with rightful shame, that others’ loss bought selfish gain.

O sorrowful for captive feet in chains, against their will,
Who toiled through centuries of wrong, to triumph still:
Whose heroes proved so beautiful in claims of lawful rights,
Who more than self their country loved, and mercy more than life.
America! America! May God yet mend thine every flaw,
Redeem thy soul and be made whole, thy liberty in law.

O beautiful for patriot dream that sees beyond the years
Thine alabaster cities gleam, undimmed human tears.
America! America! From farthest shores thy people stream,
The multitude that seek thy good, and share a common dream.
America! America! God shed His bounteous grace on thee,
Thy beauty crown with unity, From sea to shining sea.

Gonzaga University’s Choral and Vocal Studies Program combines excellence in performance with academic rigor within an inspiring community. Comprised of four ensembles—Concert Choir, Chamber Chorus, Women’s Chorus, and Men’s Chorus—choirs are open to all students, regardless of major: Gonzaga’s choirs thrive on the participation of both music majors and non‐majors, with non‐majors included in every ensemble. Performances include masterworks concerts with professional orchestra on modern and period instruments, and performances explore interdisciplinary connections through collaborations with Dance, Theatre, and Visual Art Departments.

Global engagement is a center of education at Gonzaga University. Global music initiatives include performance exchange tours, international residencies by Gonzaga ensembles, and study abroad. Cultural exchange tours have included recent performance tours to China, Austria, and Germany. In 2015, Gonzaga’s Chamber Chorus completed a three‐week residency at Javeriana Universities in Bogotá and Cali, Colombia, partnering with Colombian students and faculty in performances and fostering intercultural exchange. In 2017, the Chamber Chorus embarked on a residency in Zambia and Zimbabwe, Africa, and in 2019 partnered with the Conservatory of Florence orchestra in Florence & Castiglione delle Stiviere, Italy.

Students who desire to pursue a major in music may do so in music education or with concentrations in music performance, music composition, and sacred music. All students may also minor in music. Graduates of Gonzaga’s music department are active in the choral profession as music educators, church music directors and organists, arts administrators, and active performers. Gonzaga students have successfully pursued graduate degrees, including study at the University of Arizona, University of Minnesota, University of Oregon, University of Washington, and New England Conservatory of Music.

Gonzaga’s Vocal Studies Program achieves rigorous instruction through its vocal curriculum of diction, pedagogy, and song literature; master classes with professional artists, studio classes, recitals, and student solo opportunities with orchestras.

Music department scholarships are available to all incoming students, regardless of major, and they are awarded at various levels. Although the highest level is reserved for music majors, Gonzaga recognizes the importance of the contributions of music minors and non‐majors: those students who wish to be involved with music ensembles and lessons are eligible for scholarship awards that support such involvement. Students involved with choral ensembles are also eligible for the competitive Lyle C. Moore Choral Scholarships. These merit‐based scholarships are offered to students based on their musical excellence and academic success. In addition, the Marjory Halvorson Vocal Scholarship is awarded to exceptional vocal performance students. Students interested in applying for any choral‐vocal scholarship should contact Dr. Timothy Westerhaus at westerhaus@gonzaga.edu.
